FOOTBALL

"THE UNIVERSITY OF PITTSBURGH WILL MEAN MORE TO YOU THAN JUST FOUR YEARS OF SCHOOL AND FOOTBALL. EVEN AFTER YOUR LAST CLASS AND FINAL GAME, YOUR PITT EXPERIENCE WILL CONTINUE TO INFLUENCE AND INSPIRE EVERYTHING YOU DO AS A PERSON, PROFESSIONAL AND CITIZEN. THERE'S A REASON PEOPLE FROM THIS UNIVERSITY HAVE HELPED CHANGE OUR WORLD IN SO MANY POSITIVE WAYS. THAT'S THE POWER OF PITT."

THIS IS PITT FOOTBALL

ONCE A PANTHER, ALWAYS A PANTHER

As a Pitt football player, you are part of a huge extended family that includes some of the world's most accomplished athletes, people and professionals. Each year, several generations of former Panthers return to Pittsburgh to support their alma mater and the Pitt football team. Hall of Fame running back Tony Dorsett sums up the Pitt spirit best when he says, "I never miss an opportunity to come back."

"My four years at Pitt were four of the most important and happiest years of my life. My experience there helped shape who I am as a person and taught me many valuable things about life. Pitt means everything to me. I owe my life to the experiences I had playing football at Pitt."

“A PITT MAN”

“Pittsburgh has always been a special place in my heart.”

Dave Wannstedt has worked in practically every region of the country during his highly accomplished career. But whether he was coaching in Los Angeles, Dallas or Miami, there has truly been only one place he considered home — Pittsburgh.

"I BELIEVE I CAN MAKE A DIFFERENCE ON THE FOOTBALL FIELD, BUT JUST AS IMPORTANT, I BELIEVE I CAN MAKE A DIFFERENCE AT THE UNIVERSITY AND IN THE COMMUNITY. I THINK ALL THOSE THINGS ARE VITAL AND ALL THOSE THINGS ARE VERY IMPORTANT."

"WE WERE IN A STAFF MEETING AND I'M SITTING AT THE FAR END OF THE TABLE — IT WAS THE '76 YEAR, THE YEAR WE (PITT) WON THE NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP — AND I THINK MY JOB THAT DAY WAS TO MAKE THE COFFEE. I'M LOOKING AT COACH (JOHN) MAJORS AND SAID TO MYSELF, 'SOMEDAY, I WILL BE THE HEAD COACH AT THE UNIVERSITY OF PITTSBURGH.'"

PANTHERS IN THE PRO BOWL

Pitt not only produces draft picks, it produces draft picks who have gone on to thrive in the National Football League. Over the last two decades, the Panthers have been well represented in the Pro Bowl, the NFL's annual showcase of stars.

Andy Lee

Ruben Brown

Larry Fitzgerald

The 2008 Pro Bowl was no exception. Two former Panthers, receiver Larry Fitzgerald (Arizona Cardinals) and punter Andy Lee (San Francisco 49ers), played in the all-star game after enjoying outstanding seasons.

In addition to Fitzgerald and Lee, other Pitt products who have been Pro Bowl fixtures this decade include a pair of future Pro Football Hall of Famers in offensive lineman Ruben Brown and running back Curtis Martin. During the 1990s, the Panthers had 10 players make Pro Bowl berths, the fourth-highest total of any school in the country.

NFL PIPELINE

The University of Pittsburgh has long been a fertile source of talent for the National Football League. Pitt has not only provided players in great quantity to the NFL, but also has produced some of the finest performers in pro football history.

Pitt has won nine national championships — the most of any NCAA Division I-A (FBS) program in the East and the sixth best ever. Pitt's national champion teams not only ranked as the best in the land in that given year, but in many cases were among the elite teams in college football history.

ACADEMIC ACHIEVEMENT

Dave Wannstedt owns not one but two degrees from the University of Pittsburgh. "I know firsthand the high value of a Pitt education," Wannstedt says. "I know Pitt players who have gone on to the NFL. But I also know just as many who have gone on to be successful in business, medicine, law, teaching and broadcasting. An education lasts a lifetime and it is an unquestioned priority for our program."

BIG EAST ALL-ACADEMIC TEAM

Since 1992, Pitt has placed a total of 101 players on the Big East All-Academic Football Team, including 2004 Big East Football Scholar-Athlete of the Year Vince Crochunis.

Detective tackles Vince Crochunis (left) and Don Stephens earned five first-team Academic All-America citations during their Pitt careers from 2000-04.

MEDIA SPOTLIGHT

COLLEGE FOOTBALL

When you play football at Pitt, people know it. As one of the country's historic college programs, the Panthers garner plenty of media attention. So it's a frequent sight to see a Pitt player chatting with a newspaper reporter or stepping in front of a television camera after practice or the game.

COMMUNITY MINDED

At Pitt, you are more than just a football player. The University of Pittsburgh works to give its student-athletes a complete, well-rounded experience. Part of that experience is serving the community. The Panthers know the importance of giving back.

THIS IS PITT

The University of Pittsburgh campus is a place of delightful contrasts: Unabashedly urban, yet dotted with gardens and trees. Situated on the edge of 456-acre wooded Schenley Park, the campus weaves in and out of an exciting section of city known as Oakland, the city's cultural and medical center.

■ Founded in a log cabin in 1787, the University of Pittsburgh is among the oldest institutions of higher education in the United States. Pitt has more than 225,000 alumni living in all 50 states and territories and 119 foreign countries.

■ Pitt's academic record is outstanding, rating among the leading national and international universities in the United States. Pitt offers 400 distinct degree programs. Its faculty includes many world-renowned scholars, researchers and innovators.

■ In terms of overall performance, for the second consecutive year, Pitt ranks in the very top cluster of U.S. public research universities, according to the 2007 edition of The Top American Research Universities annual report, issued by the Center for Measuring University Performance. There are only seven universities in the center's top public university group, including Berkeley, PITT, North Carolina, Illinois, UCLA, Wisconsin and Michigan.

■ Pitt has a strong record of educating students who earn the most prestigious forms of national and international recognition. In undergraduate education, just nine universities, in addition to the three national service academies, claimed both Rhodes and Marshall Scholars in 2007. Pitt is the only public university in that elite group, which includes Cornell, PITT, Duke, Princeton, Georgetown, Washington University, Harvard, Yale and NYU.

- Just since 1995, in fact, Pitt undergraduates have won two Rhodes Scholarships, six Marshall Scholarships, five Truman Scholarships, four Udall Scholarships, one Churchill Scholarship, 31 Goldwater Scholarships and three Mellon Humanities Fellowships.
- Alumni of the University of Pittsburgh are also nationally and internationally recognized. Pitt graduates have earned the Nobel Peace Prize, Nobel Prize in medicine, Pulitzer Prize for fiction, Shaw Prize in medicine, Albany Prize in medicine, Fritz Medal in engineering, Templeton Prize and Grainger Challenge Prize for sustainability.
- Pitt serves as a vital economic engine in its home region. Through its research program alone, the University imports more than $620 million into the region each year, and those research dollars support more than 17,000 local jobs while also generating the ideas upon which the economy of the future will be built.

■ In research, Pitt ranks sixth among all U.S. universities in terms of the competitive grants awarded to members of its faculty by the National Institutes of Health. The 10 leading institutions include Harvard, PITT, Johns Hopkins, UCLA, Penn, Duke, UCSF, Michigan, Washington and Washington University. Pitt has a proud history in this area. Its rich legacy includes developing the vaccine that won this nation's war against polio as well as both the surgical techniques and drug therapies that have made human organ transplantation a treatment option that is available around the world. Pitt faculty members are leading the way in areas as diverse as computer modeling, gerontology, philosophy of science, nanotechnology and urban education, as well as in a host of other areas.

■ Since 1974, the University of Pittsburgh has been a member of the prestigious Association of American Universities, an association which includes the 62 most prominent national research universities in North America.

■ Pitt was one of just seven AAU-member research universities included in a list of "best neighbor" urban colleges and universities released by the President of the New England Board of Higher Education (NEBHE) in 2006. Pitt was among those universities referred to as "Saviors of Our Cities" that "dramatically strengthened the economy and quality of life of their neighboring communities."

■ Since 1996, enrollment at Pitt has increased by more than 2,600 students. At the same time, admission has become more selective; 46 percent of Pitt's first-year students graduated in the top 10 percent of their class, compared to 22 percent in 1996.

"While Pittsburgh used to be called Steel Town, they need to call it Knowledge Town."

PITT IRON WORKS

The road to greatness begins in the "Pitt Iron Works," also known as the Pitt football weight room. Under the direction of nationally renowned strength and conditioning coach Buddy Morris, the Iron Works is used 12 months out of the year and features the latest in strength equipment and training methods.

"Weight-training is no different from playing football — it requires discipline. You have to grind it out. That's what Pittsburghers and Pitt football players do. We are people who roll up our sleeves and aren't afraid to sweat and sacrifice. We push our guys harder than what they think they are capable of. Our goal is to maximize every ounce of our players' athletic potential."

A GREAT SPORTS TOWN

Pittsburgh ranks among the best sports towns in America. The Panthers are part of a great city sports family that includes pro franchises in football, baseball and hockey. The Steelers of the NFL, the Pirates of Major League Baseball and the Penguins of the NHL all call Pittsburgh home and, along with the Panthers, are an exciting part of the city's flavor.

2008 PREVIEW

THE OFFENSE

QUARTERBACKS

WHO'S BACK: Unlike the 2007 season, when quarterback was one of Pitt's thinnest and most untested positions, the Panthers return three scholarship players this year with game experience: junior Bill Stull and sophomores Pat Bostick and Kevan Smith.

Last year, Stull earned the starting job in training camp but was limited to just a single game when he suffered a thumb injury on his throwing hand in the opener against Eastern Michigan. He performed strongly in his lone appearance, completing 14 of 20 for 177 yards and a touchdown.

The injury sidelined Stull for the balance of the season, and he ultimately was awarded a medical redshirt.

With Stull's injured status, Pitt looked to a pair of freshmen quarterbacks in Bostick (a true frosh) and Smith, who was coming off a redshirt year. Smith was given the starting nod for the next three games and played in five contests overall, completing 36 of 64 for 415 yards with one TD and four interceptions.

Bostick took over the starting role for the final eight contests and was under center for one of the biggest victories in school history, Pitt's 13-9 upset at West Virginia. On the year he completed 61.5% of his passes (155 of 252) for 1,500 yards with eight touchdowns and 13 interceptions.

Pitt also returns redshirt freshman walk-on Andrew Janocko.

WHO'S NEW: Pitt added two quarterbacks in its 2008 recruiting class, including junior-college transfer Greg Cross (Fort Scott C.C.), who enrolled at Pitt in January and participated in spring drills. The athletic Cross ranked among the national JUCO leaders in total offense last season and was named the Offensive Player of the Year in the highly competitive Jayhawk Conference. The Panthers also welcome freshman Tino Sunseri, a PrepStar All-American who guided nearby Pittsburgh Central Catholic to an undefeated season and PIAA Class AAAA championship as a senior.

NOTABLE: Bill Stull made a complete and impressive return to action during spring drills, and emerged as the frontrunner to reclaim the starting job according to Coach Dave Wannstedt.

QUOTABLE: "Bill Stull's performance during the spring was very encouraging, especially considering that he had a six-month layoff due to the thumb injury," offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach Matt Cavanaugh said. "Unlike last year, our quarterback competition will involve players with experience. Although he is only a sophomore, Pat Bostick is the most experienced quarterback on our roster. Kevan Smith has played and started for us, and I think we are all intrigued with what an athlete like Greg Cross can bring to our offense."

RUNNING BACKS

WHO'S BACK: Pitt might boast the finest tailback-fullback tandem in the Big East — if not the nation — in sophomore LeSean McCoy and senior Conredge Collins. McCoy established himself as one of the country's most exciting young backs last year, while Collins is gaining recognition as the No. 1 player at his position in all of college football.

McCoy burst onto the Pitt scene and earned comparisons to some of the finest backs in school history after rushing for a Big East freshman record 1,328 yards. He set Pitt freshman records for points (90) and rushing touchdowns (14), surpassing the legendary Tony Dorsett's 34-year-old marks (78 points and 13 rushing TDs in 1973).

McCoy was the nation's top freshman rusher with 110.67 yards per game — eight yards better than the second-leading frosh (Georgia's Knowshon Moreno, 102.62 yds./game). Among all rushers, McCoy finished 21st nationally and second in the Big East. His lengthy list of postseason honors included unanimous Freshman All-America status, first team All-Big East and the Big East Rookie of the Year award.

Pitt has proven tailback depth with the return of senior LaRod Stephens-Howling. The speedy Stephens-Howling might be the Panthers' most elusive back and has rushed for more than 1,600 yards in his career while making 16 starts.

Collins enters his third season as Pitt's starting fullback. More than just a blocker, he is also dangerously effective as a runner and pass catcher. Competing for time behind Collins will be redshirt freshman Henry Hynoski and junior walk-on Chris Bova.

Sophomore Kevin Collier returns to the backfield mix after redshirting last year due to a dislocated wrist. Collier lettered as a freshman reserve at tailback in 2006. Shariff Harris will also look to be a factor at tailback after redshirting as a true freshman last year.

WHO'S NEW: Chris Burns earned status as Pennsylvania's top running back — and one of the top 15 backs in the country — following a prolific career at Wilmington Area High. The two-time all-state pick rushed for more than 2,200 yards and scored 38 total touchdowns as a senior.

NOTABLE: LeSean McCoy totaled 90 points last season (15 TDs), the most ever by a Pitt freshman and the third highest single-season point total by a Pitt player overall in the last 30 years. Only receivers Larry Fitzgerald (132 as a sophomore in 2003) and Julius Dawkins (96 as a junior in 1981) scored more points in a season during that stretch.

QUOTABLE: "We are blessed to have two exceptional tailbacks in LeSean and LaRod," running backs coach David Walker said. "They complement each other very well. Conredge Collins fits the ideal fullback mold — he can run, he can block and he can catch. We are enthused about our running backs' potential this year."

WIDE RECEIVERS

WHO'S BACK: Pitt is brimming with both experience and potential at receiver. Every major contributor from last year is back. The Panthers additionally get an extra boost with the healthy return of fifth-year senior Derek Kinder, who missed all of last season due to a training camp knee injury.

Kinder was expected to be a vital part of the Panthers' offense in 2007. The year prior he was Pitt's top receiver with 57 catches for 847 yards and earned first team All-Big East. The injury, however, necessitated a redshirt for Kinder, forcing several younger players to step into more prominent roles.

Among them was T.J. Porter, who emerged as Kinder's replacement at flanker. Porter led Pitt with 37 receptions (for 329 yards) and displayed flashes of being a dynamic playmaker. He could develop into an all-star caliber performer as a junior this year.

LeSean McCoy led the nation's freshman rushers last year with 110.67 yards per game.

PITT

Porter will compete with another promising junior, Cedric McGee, who appears primed for big contributions following an outstanding spring. McGee has lettered as a chief reserve each of the past two seasons. Also vying for time at flanker will be redshirt freshman Aaron Smith.

At split end, junior Oderick Turner enters his third year as a starter. The former Freshman All-American has 13 touchdowns in two seasons and led the Panthers last year with 496 receiving yards and five TD catches. Redshirt freshman Aundre Wright could also be an impact contributor at split end.

A pair of sophomore walk-ons, Samson Horne and Francis Johns, are also in the receiver mix.

WHO'S NEW: The Panthers signed three highly accomplished receiver prospects in Jonathan Baldwin, Cameron Saddler and Mike Shanahan. All three are Western Pennsylvania products who drew recruiting attention from around the country.

Baldwin, out of nearby Aliquippa High, was rated the nation's No. 3 receiver prospect by SuperPrep and played in the prestigious U.S. Army All-American Bowl. Saddler was an outstanding all-purpose player at Gateway High, generating big plays as a rusher, receiver and kick returner. Shanahan averaged nearly 20 yards per catch at Norwin High and was also a standout safety.

NOTABLE: Pitt is the only school to boast two winners of the Biletnikoff Award, annually presented to the nation's top wide receiver. Antonio Bryant won the award in 2000, while Larry Fitzgerald was honored in 2003. Derek Kinder was a semifinalist for the Biletnikoff in 2006.

QUOTABLE: "We have a very well-schooled receiver unit," receivers coach Bryan Bossard said. "The older guys have a strong comprehension of the offense. Throughout the group we have a great balance of size, speed and strength. They can catch the ball but aren't afraid to go and block a linebacker or safety. With the backs that we have, our downfield blocking is going to be imperative. While we need to continue to work on our consistency, I like the dedication and potential of this group."

TIGHT ENDS

WHO'S BACK: Pitt welcomes back two of its top three tight ends from last year. Starter Nate Byham returns for his junior season after catching 15 passes for 210 yards (14.0 avg.) and a touchdown. Also back is junior John Pelusi, a two-year letterman who caught five passes for 46 yards. The veteran pair figures to be an asset in both the pass and run games this year.

Junior Dorin Dickerson made a highly successful transition to tight end during the spring. Dickerson lettered at linebacker last year. He does, however, have experience on the offensive side of the ball after lettering as a receiver and kick returner in 2006.

WHO'S NEW: Pitt will add two freshman tight ends from the Keystone State, including Mike Cruz, who averaged 22 yards per catch at Johnstown's Bishop McCort, and Justin Virbitsky, who was first team all-state at Lakeland High.

NOTABLE: Pitt's tight ends combined for 49 receptions, 584 receiving yards and four touchdowns in 2007.

QUOTABLE:

"I believe we have a lot to like at our position," said tight ends coach Brian Angelichio. "We have depth and experience, as well as potential. Nate Byham and John Pelusi are two veterans who understand what we are looking to accomplish in our offensive schemes. Dorin Dickerson has been an exciting addition who can really bring a lot to the table with his athletic ability."

OFFENSIVE LINE

WHO'S BACK: The Panthers' 2007 offensive line produced a 1,000-yard rusher for the first time in seven seasons. However, three starters from that unit will need to be replaced in 2008.

Pitt will audition new starters at both offensive tackle spots, previously manned by NFL Draft selections Jeff Otah (first-round choice of the Carolina Panthers) and Mike McGlynn (fourth-round pick of Philadelphia Eagles).

At left tackle, a leading candidate will be sophomore Jason Pinkston, who started the first three games of 2007 before a shoulder injury ended his season. Pinkston preserved a year of eligibility with a medical redshirt. He will be pushed by redshirt freshmen Jordan Gibbs and Greg Gaskins.

Eyeing the starting right tackle assignment is junior Joe Thomas, who was Pitt's starter at right guard last year. Thomas was actually a standout tackle in high school, which made the spring positional switch a relatively easy transition. Also competing for time at this spot will be senior lettermen Chase Clowser and Frank Kochin, as well as redshirt freshman Dan Matha.

Senior guard C.J. Davis is the grizzled vet of the offensive front, having started 30 consecutive games at left guard. Providing depth behind Davis will be senior Dominic Williams and junior John Bachman, a pair of lettermen who also have starting experience. Also in the mix at left guard will be redshirt freshman Chris Jacobson and sophomore Scott Corson.

Junior John Malecki emerged from the spring as the starting right guard. Malecki lettered at nose tackle the previous two seasons. Competing behind him will be redshirt freshmen John Fieger and Wayne Jones.

The other vacancy is at center, where the leading candidate is junior-college transfer Robb Houser, one of the top center prospects in the California JUCO ranks last year. Houser joined Pitt in January and emerged as the frontrunner after performing solidly during the spring. He will be pushed by a pair of sophomores in Alex Karabin, a versatile walk-on who is also capable of playing guard, and Jared Martin, a converted defensive lineman who is looking to bounce back from an injury-hindered 2007 season.

WHO'S NEW: In addition to Robb Houser, the Panthers signed two offensive line prospects from Western Pennsylvania in freshmen Lucas Nix and Ryan Turnley. The highly coveted Nix was a Parade All-American at perennial power Thomas Jefferson High, which won two state titles during his career. Turnley was an all-state performer at Hopewell High.

NOTABLE: C.J. Davis has made 30 consecutive starts at left guard, the longest active streak by a player on this year's Pitt roster. Davis made his first starting assignment on Oct. 8, 2005, a 38-20 victory over Cincinnati during his true freshman season.

QUOTABLE: "The goal for our offensive line is continuous improvement, from the very first snap of training camp until our final game of the year," offensive line coach Tony Wise said. "Fall camp will be very significant for our line. It will be our goal from the outset to begin developing as an overall unit and from an individual standpoint."

PITT

THE DEFENSE

DEFENSIVE LINE

WHO'S BACK: Pitt's interior defensive front returns virtually intact, while the Panthers will need to slightly retol on the edge.

Both starting tackles are back in senior Rashaad Duncan and junior Mick Williams. Duncan, the starter at nose tackle, compiled 40 tackles, including seven for losses and two sacks last year. Williams had 29 stops, eight TFLs and three sacks.

Williams took over the starting role for junior Gus Mustakas, who suffered a season-ending knee injury in the year's second game. Mustakas, who started every game as a sophomore in 2006, received a medical redshirt and will be fully recovered for fall training camp. Another significant figure on the interior will be junior Tommie Duhart, who played in all 12 games (making three starts) and had 24 stops and 4.5 TFLs.

Junior letterman Craig Bokor will provide quality depth at nose tackle. Additional competition at tackle will come from two redshirt freshmen, Myles Caragein and walk-on Chas Alecxih.

Despite the loss of both starters at defensive end, Pitt returns some intriguing talent and experience at the position.

Sophomore Greg Romeus will be a favorite to earn the vacated spot on the right side after a highly impressive 2007 season. As a top reserve last year, Romeus earned Freshman All-America status after ranking second on the team in both sacks (four) and tackles for losses (11.5). Only departed All-Big East defensive end Joe Clermond had more production in those two categories.

Pushing for time behind Romeus will be sophomore Tyler Tkach, who lettered in a backup role last season, and redshirt freshman Tony Tucker.

Leading the competition at left end will be junior Doug Fulmer, who enjoyed a strong spring after missing most of the last two seasons due to injuries. Fulmer impressed with his playmaking ability as a starter during the early portion of the 2006 season before being sidelined. His play this past spring indicated he is ready to recapture that effective form.

Fulmer will receive strong competition from sophomore Jabaal Sheard, who lettered as a true frosh last year. Additionally, Justin Hargrove enters his first active season after redshirting as a freshman.

WHO'S NEW: With only one senior on its preseason depth chart, Pitt did not sign any additional defensive line prospects this year.

NOTABLE: Last year, Pitt featured one of its best pass rushes in recent seasons. The Panthers compiled 35 sacks, their most since the 2001 season. Pitt's defensive line accounted for 26.5 of those sacks, or 75% of the team total.

QUOTABLE: "Our players have a chance to be a really good unit," said defensive line coach Greg Gattuso. "The goal is to be the best defensive line in the Big East. Almost every player has started at least one game for us. Most of the kids have significant playing experience under their belt. It is going to be important for our overall defense that the line plays well."

LINEBACKERS

WHO'S BACK: Pitt will boast one of college football's finest defenders in senior middle linebacker Scott McKillop. McKillop led the entire country in tackles last season (12.58 per game), earning All-America status and unanimous first-team All-Big East honors. His 151 total tackles were the third highest single-season total in school history.

McKillop's play spearheaded a unit that ranked first in the Big East and fifth nationally in total defense, yielding just 297.67 yards per game. McKillop enters his senior year as a prominent candidate for the country's top defensive honors, including the Butkus Award, given annually to college football's best linebacker.

McKillop is one of three starting linebackers returning for the Panthers. Senior Adam Gunn returns as the starting Sam linebacker, while junior Shane Murray is back at the Will spot. Murray (60 stops) and Gunn (59) ranked second and third, respectively, for Pitt in tackles last year.

Battling to provide depth in the middle will be junior letterman Steve Dell and redshirt freshman Max Gruder, who impressed during the spring.

Pushing for time at the Sam will be redshirt freshmen Brandon Lindsey and converted running back Greg Williams. Rounding out the competition at Will linebacker will be sophomore letterman Nate Nix, redshirt frosh Tristan Roberts and junior walk-on and special teams demon Brian Kaiser.

Linebacker Scott McKillop (40) with end Greg Romeus (91) and tackle Mick Williams (95).

Aaron

NEW: Highly touted Shayne Hale was a national top 50 prospect and USA Today All-American at nearby Gateway High. Hale will be joined by two other freshmen: Manny Williams, a first-team all-state performer out of WPIAL Class A power Clairton, and Florida import Joe Trebitz, who starred at West Boca Raton.

NOTABLE: Scott McKillop, Adam Gunn and Shane Murray each started all 12 games a year ago at their respective positions.

QUOTABLE: "Our returning starters are outstanding leaders," said linebackers coach Joe Tumpkin. "Scott, Adam and Shane have taken an assertive role in helping our younger players adapt and learn. We are very confident in our starters. They have what our younger players lack — the experience of being in the frying pan of a game. As a result, they will be major assets for not only our linebackers but also our overall defense."

DEFENSIVE BACKS

WHO'S BACK: The secondary returns eight lettermen and two starters from a unit that ranked first in the Big East and third nationally in pass defense, yielding only 167.25 yards per game.

Junior Aaron Berry might be poised for an all-star caliber year after earning a starting role at cornerback in 2007. Playing the field corner, Berry paced the secondary with seven passes defended and had a team-high two interceptions. Vying for time behind him will be sophomore Ricky Gary, who earned three starting assignments while playing in all 12 games last year. Junior walk-on Dan Cafaro will provide depth.

Pitt lost its starting boundary corner, Kennard Cox, to the NFL Draft. Junior Jovani

Chappel will look to earn the starting nod after lettering as a backup the past two seasons. He will compete with redshirt freshman

Buddy Jackson and true frosh Ronald Hobby, who enrolled in January out of Maryland's Gwynn Park High.

Senior Eric Thatcher will be an anchor for Pitt's secondary from his free safety position. Thatcher started all 12 games last year and tied for fourth on the team with 53 tackles. Providing depth at the free will be junior lettermen Irvan Brown and Mike Toerper. Senior walk-on Scott Shrake will also compete at free.

At strong safety, sophomore Dom DeCicco will look to elevate to a starting role after seeing backup duty last year. He will be pushed by sophomore Elijah Fields. Other candidates at strong safety include senior Austin Ransom, who made the switch from receiver this past offseason.

WHO'S NEW: In addition to mid-year enrollee Ronald Hobby, Pitt welcomes three highly regarded Pennsylvania products to its secondary. Jarred Holley had 21 career interceptions at Easton Area and was a PrepStar and SuperPrep All-American. Antwuan Reed starred at Greater Johnstown High, where he was a two-time first-team all-state selection.

Andrew Taglianetti was a big-play performer for Pittsburgh Central Catholic's undefeated PIAA Class AAAA champion team and also was first team all-state.

NOTABLE: Pitt has twice ranked among the nation's top three in pass defense during Dave Wannstedt's tenure. The Panthers finished second in the country in 2005, giving up only 152.82 passing yards per game. Pitt was third nationally in 2007 (167.25 avg.).

QUOTABLE: "Our secondary can and must be a strength for the overall defense this year," defensive backs coach Jeff Hafley said. "The secondary is incredibly important because if we give up plays it's a touchdown. As a unit we are very solid and we're pleased with the progress we've made. However, in order to become the strength we know we can be, continuous improvement by both our veterans and young players is a must."

THE SPECIALISTS

WHO'S BACK: Senior placekicker Conor Lee is a vital offensive weapon for the Panthers. The Lou Groza Award candidate is the Big East's active career leader in field goal percentage (83.3% made) and ranks among the nation's top five in that category.

Lee has accounted for 165 points the past two seasons. Last year he tied a Pitt single-season record with 18 field goals and paced the conference with an 81.8% field goal success rate (18 of 22). He has an active streak of 75 consecutive extra points, breaking the previous school record of 60 that stood for 32 years.

Competing to be Lee's backup will be a trio of walk-ons in senior Cody Sawhill and sophomores Dan Hutchins and Luke Briggs.

Pitt also boasts a veteran specialist in the punting game. Senior Dave Brytus averaged 39.6 yards per punt last year and placed 18 inside the 20. With increased consistency, Brytus has the strength and skills to earn all-star consideration this year.

Dependable senior Mark Estermyer enters his fourth year as a primary long snapper for the Panthers. Estermyer will handle the snapping for both punts and field goals.

Pitt's return game bursts with potential. Junior Aaron Berry ranked among the Big East's top three punt returners last year (8.6 avg.), while senior LaRod Stephens-Howling and junior T.J. Porter have displayed big-play capabilities as kickoff returners. Additionally, redshirt freshman Aundre Wright will be a factor as a returner as well.

WHO'S NEW: Pitt will add a national-caliber specialist in Kevin Harper, who was rated among the country's top five placekickers by Rivals. A first-team All-Ohio performer from Mentor High, Harper set a state record with a 61-yard field goal.

NOTABLE: Conor Lee has missed only six placements during his career — all field goals. He is perfect on 75 extra-point attempts and 30 of 36 (83.3%) in field goals.

QUOTABLE: "Special teams are a vital part of winning football games," Coach Dave Wannstedt said. "That's why having a pair of senior specialists like Conor Lee and Dave Brytus is so valuable. Conor and Dave know what to expect and know what's expected of them. Their importance to our team cannot be understated."

DAVE WANNSTEDT

HEAD COACH

The celebratory noise coming out of the Panthers' locker room on a cold and misty night in Morgantown last December could readily be heard through the walls of West Virginia's Milan Puskar Stadium.

For that matter, it could be heard all the way back to Pittsburgh — if not Columbus, Kansas City and Baton Rouge.

The youthful Panthers had just sent shockwaves through the college football landscape by defeating West Virginia, 13-9, on its home turf. Pitt didn't just win — it put a stranglehold on the explosive Mountaineer offense for a full three hours and 10 minutes.

In the cramped but joyous Pitt locker room, Dave Wannstedt stood above it all. It was a satisfying and historic end to a season that was all about perseverance.

Untimely injuries and young players in key spots made 2007 a season-long growth process. Valiant efforts were rewarded at times only with disappointment. Four Pitt defeats were by a touchdown or less.

"You can lose some games as a coach," Wannstedt said. "But you can never lose the team."

Wannstedt continuously molded, shaped and encouraged his youthful charges to the very end. In the case of 2007, the very end was a signature victory over an intense rival.

The win, and Pitt's overall progress last season, make 2008 a highly anticipated campaign, Wannstedt's fourth as head coach of the Panthers.

Pitt returns 17 starters and also inked its third consecutive nationally rated recruiting class.

Wannstedt has established himself as one of the college game's best recruiters. He's been nicknamed "the closer" and for good reason.

When Wannstedt speaks about the University of Pittsburgh, there is an unmistakable strength of conviction.

Wannstedt is a Pittsburgh guy. He owns not one but two degrees from the University of Pittsburgh. He is a living, breathing example of a Pitt education and Pitt football.

"There might be no other coach in the country who knows the very soil beneath him better than 'Wanny,'" CBS Sportsline.com senior writer Dennis Dodd said. "Wannstedt's blood and sweat literally stain the grass at his alma mater."

"I wouldn't want to do this job anywhere else," Wannstedt said. "I love Pitt and I love the city of Pittsburgh."

The scene outside of Wannstedt's office windows in the Pitt football practice facility provides a view that is uniquely Pittsburgh and totally fitting for the Panthers' head coach.

The immediate view is to the east, where in the foreground the Panthers' lush grass practice fields capture the eye.

Just beyond the green fields sit steel mills, a reminder of the city's industrial heritage and, for decades, the economic lifeblood of the region.

A gaze back to the west and one can soak in Pittsburgh's breathtaking skyline. The skyscrapers now symbolize the "new Pittsburgh," the former steel city that has evolved into a thriving center for corporations, medicine and higher education.

Although he spent most of the last three decades residing outside of Pittsburgh, these views still remain familiar and comforting for Wannstedt.

He, too, once worked during the summers in the mills that inhabited a stretch of land located off Pittsburgh's Second Avenue. Wannstedt would labor alongside his father, Frank, and then head to old Pitt Stadium to pump a different kind of iron in the Panthers' weight room in preparation for the upcoming season.

Each of these scenes — the football fields, steel mills and the city — are embedded in Wannstedt. "Pittsburgh never really left me," he said. "It's always been a special place in my heart."

That is why, more than 30 years after captaining the Panthers' 1973 Fiesta Bowl team, Wannstedt was the perfect choice to lead the University of Pittsburgh's football program. He was named Pitt's 34th head coach on December 23, 2004.

A rugged offensive tackle for the Panthers from 1970-73, Wannstedt returned to his alma mater with three decades of highly accomplished coaching experience on the collegiate level and in the National Football League. His career has produced three championship rings, including a Super Bowl title and two national collegiate championships.

These days, Wannstedt only wears his Pitt 1976 national championship ring. "Our players and prospects should know that I was part of the greatest team Pitt ever had," he said. "I take pride in that."

"This opportunity is something I have dreamed about since my early coaching days at Pitt," said Wannstedt, who is a native of Baldwin, Pa.

Wannstedt is the ninth graduate of the school to lead the Panthers' football program.

In his 33-year coaching career, he has been a part of 10 bowl teams, six NFL playoff teams, two college national champions (Pittsburgh in 1976 and Miami in 1987) and one Super Bowl champion (Dallas in 1992).

A "Pitt Man" through and through, Wannstedt has served as a bridge to the program's past — the visits by former players and alumni have reached unprecedented levels — as he is driving the Panthers strongly into the future.

PITT

"Dave is a Pitt guy," said Mike Ditka, an All-America end for the Panthers before he went on to a Hall of Fame playing and coaching career in the NFL. "Dave has a commitment to this university. The excitement created since Dave came back probably hasn't happened in, what, 20 years? Dave is the right guy to lead this program. He's a young guy with a lot of enthusiasm and he's really proud to be a Pittsburgh guy."

In 2006, Wannstedt and his wife Jan gave a $250,000 gift to the University of Pittsburgh to endow a football scholarship.

"As a high school senior growing up in Baldwin, I was provided with the life-changing opportunity to receive an outstanding education and play major-college football due to a scholarship," Wannstedt said. "We want to be able to help provide those same opportunities for both current and future generations of student-athletes."

Wannstedt's passion and conviction have created a buzz about Pitt football in Western Pennsylvania and beyond. Not content to stay in Pitt's traditional backyard, Wannstedt embarks on annual tours of alumni functions and high schools throughout the commonwealth. The Panther boss causes quite a stir while meeting and greeting coaches, principals, high school superintendents, Pitt grads and future Pitt grads.

"The reception we've received has been overwhelming," Wannstedt said of his travels. "I have received nothing but the utmost respect from the coaches, players and administrators at all of the schools that we've visited. It's a tremendous feeling. I'm excited because I'm selling something I believe in — the University of Pittsburgh."

"I think people sense my enthusiasm and hopefully that makes them want to become a part of something special that we are building at Pitt."

Wannstedt rejoined the college ranks after spending the prior 16 years in the NFL. Eleven of those years were as a head coach, including six with the Chicago Bears (1993-98) and five with the Miami Dolphins (2000-04). Including 2005-07, his 17 years of collegiate coaching experience include 11 winning campaigns and a 128-67-4 record.

It all began, though, in Pittsburgh, where first he was a star at Baldwin High and later played a key role in Pitt football's resurgence in the 1970s. "Dave was such a leader," said Jim Gillooly, his high school football coach. "Dave would scramble up the side of the hill on all fours, in the weeds and the brush, to get in shape. He made a big W-A-N-N in the side of the hill. That became part of our drill, the Wannstedt Drill. Even after Dave was gone."

Wannstedt was a three-sport star for Baldwin in football, basketball and track and field. He earned all-state in football and played in the prestigious Big 33 Classic all-star game. Wannstedt captained both the Highlanders' football and basketball squads before graduating in 1970.

Earning a scholarship to the University of Pittsburgh, he played on the freshman team during the '70 season (freshmen were then not eligible for varsity competition) and earned a starting job as just a sophomore.

John Majors took over as head coach at Pitt for Wannstedt's senior year and led the team to a 6-4-1 regular season and Fiesta Bowl berth. The '73 campaign was the launching pad for Pitt's juggernaut success the rest of the decade that included a 55-15-1 mark (.782), a national championship and five bowls over the next six years. Wannstedt was one of the '73 team's unsung heroes, providing tough blocking from his left tackle spot. His efforts helped a young back named Tony Dorsett rush for 1,686 yards.

Although he was selected by the Green Bay Packers in the 1974 draft, a neck injury cut short Wannstedt's pro aspirations. He returned to Pitt and started his coaching career as a graduate assistant under Majors in 1975 and 1976.

"I knew he had big things ahead of him," Majors said. "You could see it and sense it. He was self-motivated and tough. He was fierce, and everyone around him respected him. He did things the right way, with hard work and dedication. I never had to worry about him. I also saw other players watching how he conducted himself and gravitating to him. That's why he is a great football coach — people see how much the game means to him, how hard he works."

When Majors departed following the undefeated '76 national title season, Wannstedt served under Jackie Sherrill at Pitt in 1977 and 1978, coaching receivers and special teams. His four years on the Panthers' staff witnessed three Top 15 national rankings, a combined 37-10-1 record (.781) and bowl invites each season. "You knew he had the talent to be a coach," Sherrill said. "Just the way he handled himself, the confidence he had, the way he handled other players."

The talent evident at Pitt launched Wannstedt into a coaching career that took him from his hometown to destinations all over the country, including a pair of NFL head coaching jobs.

During Wannstedt's head coaching tenure with the Dolphins, Miami was one of just three NFL teams from 2000-03 to record nine or more victories each year. The Dolphins' 41-23 mark during that span tied for the club's best four-year record in nearly 20 seasons. Miami captured the AFC East Division championship in 2000 with an 11-5 record. The Dolphins' defense that season ranked third in the NFL in points allowed (a franchise-low 226 points) and led the league with 28 interceptions. He joined the Dolphins in 1999 as assistant head coach under Jimmy Johnson.

Johnson, now an NFL analyst with FOX, and Wannstedt first teamed up together at Pitt.

(Johnson was the assistant head coach and defensive coordinator under Sherrill before moving on as head coach at Oklahoma State.) The pair became fast friends at Pittsburgh and Johnson ultimately would tap Wannstedt as a top lieutenant at four stops, including Oklahoma State, the University of Miami, the Dallas Cowboys and with the Dolphins.

PITT

Wannstedt concluded his Chicago Bears tenure as the third-winningest coach in the franchise's history with 41 victories. In 1994 he was named the NFC Coach of the Year by UPI and Football News after directing Chicago back to the playoffs following a three-year hiatus. Wannstedt additionally was among the top three finishers for NFL Coach of the Year honors that season by The Associated Press, Pro Football Writers, The Sporting News, Pro Football Weekly and Football Digest. The Bears were the NFL's least-penalized team for two consecutive seasons (1994-95) under his watch.

From 1989-92, Wannstedt was part of a dramatic revitalization of the Dallas Cowboys as defensive coordinator and, in his final season, assistant head coach. His tenure witnessed Dallas' transformation from a 1-15 team to Super Bowl champions in just three years. Wannstedt's 1992 defense was the NFL's youngest but went on to lead the league in total defense, allowing just 245.7 yards per game. The '92 season was punctuated with the Cowboys' 52-17 demolition of Buffalo in Super Bowl XXVII as his defense forced nine turnovers. In 1990, Wannstedt's role in Dallas' revival earned him NFL Assistant Coach of the Year honors.

Prior to Dallas, Wannstedt spent three years as the defensive coordinator of the Miami Hurricanes. From 1986-88, Miami went 34-2 (.944) and won the 1987 national championship with a 12-0 record. During his tenure, the Hurricanes held opponents to just 2.2 yards per rush, gave up only 10.9 points per game and averaged 48 sacks per year. Wannstedt's defenses produced 11 NFL draft selections, including five taken in the initial two rounds.

Wannstedt's other collegiate stops included Southern California (1983-85) and Oklahoma State (1979-82). As defensive line coach at USC, he helped the Trojans capture the 1984 Pacific-10 championship and a subsequent 20-17 win over Ohio State in the Rose Bowl. Wannstedt was also the defensive line coach at Oklahoma State his initial three years before elevating to defensive coordinator in 1982.

Wannstedt is a 1974 graduate of the University of Pittsburgh. He also earned his master's from Pitt in 1976. The Pitt Varsity Letter Club in 1999 named him an Awardee of Distinction for his professional and personal accomplishments following his graduation from the university. In 1990 Wannstedt was inducted into the Western Pennsylvania Sports Hall of Fame, becoming the youngest person to receive the honor.

Wannstedt and his wife Jan have two daughters, Keri and Jami, and a grandson. Keri and her husband Mike Drew welcomed a son, Connor David, on Sept. 28, 2007.

THE WORD ON WANNSTEDT

"Coach Wannstedt is a tremendous person. I benefited so much from his experience and teachings. He's coached a lot of cornerbacks who have been Pro Bowl guys. One of the things he did with me when he came in was put me in their schemes. We always talked about what those Pro Bowl corners were doing that I could put into my game. It helped me get to where I am today."

— Darrelle Revis, New York Jets 2007 First-Round Draft Pick and Two-Time All-Big East Cornerback at Pitt

"Dave Wannstedt is the right guy for the right job at absolutely the right time. Pitt is on the cusp of becoming a perennial Top 10 team. All the needed state-of-the-art facilities are in place and Dave is the element that will take the program to another level. Dave is one of us. He doesn't need to be sold on Pitt. He's coached in college. He's coached in the pros. He's won championships on both levels. And he's from Western Pennsylvania! What more could you want?"

— Mark May, ESPN College Football Analyst and 1980 Pitt Outland Trophy Winner and All-American

"I've known Dave Wannstedt for nearly 30 years. We've coached all over the country together. We've won Super Bowls and national championships together. I can tell you this — Dave knows what it takes to win and he knows what it takes to win at Pitt. His passion and coaching abilities will make big things happen there."

— Jimmy Johnson, FOX Analyst and Former NFL and College Head Coach

"Dave is a Pitt guy. Dave has a commitment to this university. The excitement created since Dave came back probably hasn't happened in, what, 20 years? Dave is the right guy to lead this program. He's a young guy with a lot of enthusiasm and he's really proud to be a Pittsburgh guy."

— Mike Ditka, Pro and College Football Hall of Famer and 1960 Pitt All-American

"Known as a relentless recruiter in the '80s at Pitt, Oklahoma State, USC and Miami, Wannstedt has picked up right where he left off."

— Stewart Mandel, Sports Illustrated Senior Writer

"Pittsburgh has the right guy. There might be no other coach in the country who knows the very soil beneath him better than 'Wanny.' Wannstedt's blood and sweat literally stain the grass at his alma mater."

— CBS Sportsline.com Senior Writer Dennis Dodd

"His Pittsburgh background is very important in that part of the world. In some places, it doesn't matter where you're from, but there it does. People there have a religious devotion to football, and it's important to have (someone) with a high pedigree. Dave has it. I think it is a heck of a match, Pitt and Dave Wannstedt."

— Georgia State Coach and Former ESPN Analyst Bill Curry

"I knew he had big things ahead of him. You could see it and sense it. He was self-motivated and tough. He was fierce, and everyone around him respected him. He did things the right way, with hard work and dedication. I never had to worry about him. I also saw other players watching how he conducted himself and gravitating to him. That's why he is a great football coach — people see how much the game means to him, how hard he works."

— Former Pitt Head Coach John Majors

"I've always liked Dave Wannstedt. He has a great feel for the game. I think Pitt got itself one heck of a football coach. He has a great ability to communicate with players and has a great understanding of the game. For young men to have an opportunity to play under him, I think it will be very special. He comes in with instant credibility. I think he's great for the city."

— Former Pittsburgh Steelers Head Coach Bill Cowher

"Dave understands Pittsburgh and he understands the players you have to recruit. He's going to have a great deal of influence bringing a lot of those types of players back in the program. The confidence, his work ethic and being from Pittsburgh, that gives him all the tools to be successful."

— Former Pitt Head Coach Jackie Sherrill

just 297.67 yards per game. The Panthers also earned lofty national rankings in pass defense (third, 167.25 yards/game), sacks (20th, 2.92 sacks/game), pass efficiency defense (26th, 113.96 rating) and rush defense (33rd, 130.42 yards/game).

Defensive end Joe Clermond flourished under Gattuso's guidance, twice earning All-Big East and compiling 16 sacks and 29.5 tackles for losses over his junior and senior seasons. Clermond played in the East-West Shrine Game and went on to sign with the Chicago Bears.

At the other defensive end spot, Greg Romeus established himself as one of the country's top young players. As a redshirt freshman last year, Romeus ranked second only to Clermond in TFLs (11.5) and sacks (four) on the team and earned Freshman All-America honors.

Gattuso originally joined the Pitt staff as tight ends coach and recruiting coordinator in 2005. In his first season, he helped the Panthers sign a recruiting class rated the nation's 10th best by Scout.com.

A Western Pennsylvania native, Gattuso brings to Pitt a winning resume as a coach and player on both the collegiate and high school levels.

Before joining Pitt, Gattuso spent 12 years building neighboring Duquesne University into one of the elite I-AA football programs in the country. The winningest coach in school history, the Dukes went 97-32 (.752) under his direction, won eight Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference (MAAC) titles, made five bowl appearances and captured the 2003 consensus Mid-Major Division I-AA national championship.

Gattuso was twice named the national Mid-Major I-AA Coach of the Year and was a seven-time MAAC Coach of the Year. The Dukes dominated the MAAC during his tenure, going 66-7 (.904) in league play, including a 33-game winning streak.

Gattuso was an assistant coach at Duquesne in 1992 before taking over the head coaching post the following year. He previously served as head coach at his high school alma mater, Seton-LaSalle, from 1989-91. Taking over a team that went 6-34 during the four seasons prior to his arrival, Gattuso led the Rebels to a 28-10-1 mark (.731), including three WPIAL playoff berths, a WPIAL championship and Parkway Conference title.

A 1980 graduate of Seton-LaSalle High, Gattuso was named the Pittsburgh Post-Gazette's Class AA Player of the Year his senior season and went on to a standout career at Penn State, where he was a two-time All-East defensive lineman and a member of the Lions' 1982 national title team.

Gattuso is a 1983 graduate of Penn State with a bachelor's degree in administration and criminal justice.

GREG GATTUSO has made invaluable contributions to the Pitt football program since joining Dave Wannstedt's original staff in 2005. As a result, Gattuso was promoted to assistant head coach this past offseason, expanding his duties beyond the playing and practice fields.

Gattuso enters his fourth season with the Panthers and his third coaching the defensive line. A former All-East defensive lineman himself at Penn State during the early 1980s, he helped mold one of Pitt's best defensive fronts in recent memory last year.

Gattuso's line was a vital part of the Panthers' nationally rated defense. Pitt ranked fifth nationally and first in the Big East in total defense, yielding legendary Tony Dorsett's 34-year-old marks (78 points, 13 rushing TDs in 1973).

In 2006, Pitt ranked among the nation's top 20 in three different major offensive categories, including pass efficiency (third, 166.79 rating), scoring (14th, 31.75 points per game) and passing (20th, 249.25 yards per game). Pitt's scoring average of nearly 32 points per game that season was its highest in 25 years. Only the Panthers' 1981 edition, which averaged 32.1 points under quarterback Dan Marino, scored at a higher clip during that span.

Individually, quarterback Tyler Palko, now with the New Orleans Saints, was a major beneficiary of Cavanaugh's guidance. As a senior, Palko led the Big East and ranked fourth in the country in pass efficiency (163.25). He finished his career ranked second all-time at Pitt in total offense (8,429) and touchdown passes (tied with 66) and additionally finished third in career passing yards (8,343).

Cavanaugh has renewed ties with Dave Wannstedt for the third time. Wannstedt was an assistant on the Pitt staff during the final three years of Cavanaugh's sparkling collegiate career from 1974-77. The pair also worked together in the NFL when Wannstedt was the head coach of the Chicago Bears and Cavanaugh his offensive coordinator.

Cavanaugh will forever be remembered in Panther lore for quarterbacking Pitt to the 1976 national championship. He capped that magical season with an MVP performance in the Sugar Bowl, leading Pittsburgh to a 27-3 demolition of Georgia. Cavanaugh scored the first touchdown of the game and the celebration of that score became a Sports Illustrated cover (Jan. 10, 1977), which is still displayed at several locales on campus.

His effective blend of passing and running made him an All-American in 1977 and his 3,378 career passing yards still rank 13th in Pitt annals.

He returned to Pittsburgh in 2005 with an impressive resume as a player and coach on both the collegiate and professional levels. In addition to his collegiate championship, Cavanaugh earned three Super Bowl rings, including two as a player (with the San Francisco 49ers in 1984 and the New York Giants in 1990) and one as a coach (Baltimore Ravens in 2000).

A native of Youngstown, Ohio, and graduate of Chaney High, Cavanaugh spent 14 years as a quarterback in the National Football League. A second-round selection of New England in 1978, he spent five seasons (1978-82) with the Patriots before moving on to stints with the San Francisco 49ers (1983-85), Philadelphia Eagles (1986-89) and New York Giants (1990-91).

Cavanaugh began his coaching career at Pitt, where he served as tight ends coach for John Majors in 1993. He then moved back to the NFL, serving as quarterbacks coach for the Arizona Cardinals from 1994-95 and at San Francisco in 1996. From 1997-98, Cavanaugh was offensive coordinator for Chicago, serving under Wannstedt, who was the Bears' head coach. He then was the offensive coordinator at Baltimore (1999-2004), where during the Ravens' Super Bowl season he orchestrated a rushing attack that produced a franchise-record 2,199 yards.

Cavanaugh earned his bachelor's degree from Pitt in administration of justice.

MATT CAVANAUGH, who ranks among the most effective and efficient quarterbacks in Pitt history, is in his fourth year as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach for the Panthers.

In its 2007 college football annual, The Sporting News named Cavanaugh the top offensive coordinator in the Big East — and for good reason. In Cavanaugh, Pitt has a well-versed offensive mind who has experience on both the pro and college levels.

Overseeing a unit rife with youth last year, the Panthers produced their first 1,000-yard rusher in seven years. Tailback LeSean McCoy rushed for a Big East freshman record 1,328 yards and topped all freshman runners nationally with 110.67 yards per game.

McCoy set Pitt freshman records for points (90) and rushing touchdowns (14), surpassing the

PHIL BENNETT, a three-decade veteran of the college coaching ranks and a former national "Coordinator of the Year" honoree, was named defensive coordinator at the University of Pittsburgh in February. Sports Illustrated's Stewart Mandel subsequently named Bennett one of the nation's top 10 "impact assistants" this year.

Bennett joins the Panthers after serving as head coach at Southern Methodist University from 2002-07. Prior to SMU, he oversaw some of the country's top defensive units while at such schools as Texas A&M, Kansas State and Louisiana State.

While rebuilding the program at SMU, Bennett improved the Mustangs' win total for three consecutive seasons, including his 2006 team that reached bowl eligibility and achieved the program's highest victory total in a decade. That squad also received the American Football Coaches Association's (AFCA) 2006 Academic Achievement Award after SMU earned a 100% graduation rate for its freshman class of 2000-01.

Prior to SMU, Bennett was the defensive coordinator and secondary coach at Kansas State for three years (1999-2001). During his tenure, the Wildcats finished among the nation's top five in total defense each season, including second in 1999 (235.0 yards/game), fourth in 2000 (270.54) and third in 2001 (262.36).

Bennett's secondary units were equally impressive, finishing in the top 10 in pass efficiency defense each year. The 1999 Wildcats led the entire country in pass efficiency defense with an impressive 65.7 rating. They also topped the nation in turnover margin (1.55 margin/game), collecting 21 interceptions and 17 fumbles.

Two of his standouts in the secondary, Dyshod Carter and Jerametrious Butler, became just the second pair of KSU teammates to record 10 or more career interceptions. Both went on to play in the NFL.

In 1998, Bennett served as secondary coach and co-recruiting coordinator at Oklahoma as he helped the Sooners finish sixth nationally in total defense. In 1997, he was the defensive coordinator at Texas Christian and helped the Horned Frogs earn their highest defensive rankings in five years.

Bennett was the defensive coordinator at Texas A&M from 1995-96. American Football Quarterly named him its 1995 "Defensive Coordinator of the Year" after the Aggies ranked in the nation's top 10 in every major defensive category, including total defense (third), scoring defense (third) and pass efficiency defense (second).

From 1991-94, Bennett served at LSU, including his final three seasons as assistant head coach. In 1994, he was the Tigers' defensive coordinator. That season, LSU led the Southeastern Conference in every major defensive category and finished eighth nationally in total defense. Bennett's positional focus was the outside linebackers his first three seasons and the secondary his final year in Baton Rouge.

Prior to LSU, Bennett held defensive coordinator posts at Purdue (1987-90) and Iowa State (1983-86). In 1982 he coached TCU's tight ends and tackles. Bennett began his coaching career at Texas A&M as a part-time defensive ends coach from 1979-80 before assuming a full-time position in 1981.

Bennett is a 1978 graduate of Texas A&M with a B.S. in education. He was an All-Southwest Conference defensive end for the Aggies, helping them earn invitations to the Sun, Bluebonnet and Liberty bowls during his career.

BRIAN ANGELICHIO

TIGHT ENDS

BRIAN ANGELICHIO enters his third year on Pitt's coaching staff working with the tight ends.

Under Angelichio's watch, the tight ends have been integral contributors to the Panthers' rushing and passing attacks. The position figures to be a major strength for Pitt's offense this year with the return of juniors Nate Byham and John Pelusi.

Angelichio oversaw the development of former Panthers tight end Darrell Strong, who signed with the Oakland Raiders this past spring. Strong, who caught six touchdown passes over his final two collegiate seasons, was selected to play in the Hula Bowl all-star game.

Angelichio joined Pitt as a well-rounded football coach following his 10-year tenure at Ithaca College (1996-2005).

Named Ithaca's offensive coordinator in 2000, Angelichio molded a highly productive unit that set or tied 30 team and individual records over his final five seasons. The Bombers averaged nearly 40 points per game in 2005 to rank 18th nationally on the NCAA Division III level.

Angelichio oversaw the development of seven All-Americans at Ithaca, which advanced to the postseason in seven of his 10 years. His offenses averaged more than 30 points per game in six of his final eight seasons.

Before elevating to his offensive coordinator post, Angelichio coached Ithaca's linebackers (1996-97) and receivers (1998). He oversaw the offensive line from 1999-2005.

In addition to football, Angelichio was a member of Ithaca's baseball staff for nine years, helping the Bombers to the NCAA playoffs each season.

A 1995 graduate of St. Lawrence with a bachelor's in physical education, Angelichio was a member of the Saints' football and baseball teams. He was a three-year starter at outside linebacker and also was a captain and four-year starter on the baseball team. Angelichio spent a season as secondary coach at Brockport (1995) before coming to Ithaca. He earned his master's from Ithaca in 1997.

BRYAN BOSSARD, who served on the staff at Maryland the last three seasons, was named wide receivers coach at Pitt by Dave Wannstedt in February.

Bossard previously worked under Wannstedt in a pair of NFL summer coaching internships with the Chicago Bears in 1996-97.

Working with a young Terps receiving corps in 2007, Bossard oversaw the development of Freshman All-America wideout LaQuan Williams. He coached another Frosh All-American in Darrius Heyward-Bey during the 2006 campaign.

Prior to his Maryland tenure, Bossard coached the receivers at perennial I-AA power Delaware, his alma mater, from 2002-04. He also was on the Blue Hens' coaching staff from 1994-98 in the same capacity.

Bossard helped Delaware win the 2003 Division I-AA national title with a 15-1 mark. During that championship season, the Blue Hens had three different receivers catch 50 passes or more, an unprecedented achievement at UD. Delaware made three consecutive playoff berths from 1995-97, advancing to the national semifinals each year.

A native of Dover, Del., Bossard was an outstanding player himself for the Blue Hens from 1985-88. An All-Yankee Conference defensive back, he helped Delaware to two I-AA playoff berths. In his final collegiate season he collected 122 tackles and was selected the team's outstanding senior defensive player by the Blue Hen Touchdown Club.

Bossard broke into the collegiate coaching ranks as a graduate assistant at Delaware in 1990. He then coached defensive backs at Morehouse College (1991), West Chester University (1992) and Bucknell (1992-93).

In 1999, Bossard coached the receivers at Army before moving on to a defensive back coaching post at Wyoming during the 2000 and '01 seasons.

He is a 1989 graduate of Delaware with a bachelor's degree in agricultural business management.

JEFF HAFLEY

SECONDARY

Entering his third year at Pitt, JEFF HAFLEY has been a valuable member of the Panthers' defensive coaching staff.

When the opportunity arose this past offseason, Hafley was rewarded for his efforts when Dave Wannstedt promoted him to secondary coach. Hafley previously served as Pitt's defensive graduate assistant in 2006 and '07 with a specific coaching focus on the cornerbacks.

Hafley helped the Panthers last year rank fifth nationally and first in the Big East in total defense, yielding just 297.67 yards per game. The Panthers also earned lofty national rankings in pass defense (third, 167.25 yards/game), sacks (20th, 2.92 sacks/game), pass efficiency defense (26th, 113.96 rating) and rush defense (33rd, 130.42 yards/game).

Prior to Pitt, Hafley served at the University of Albany for four seasons (2002-05), including his final two as defensive backs coach and recruiting coordinator. In his initial two years Hafley was a graduate assistant who coached Albany's defensive tackles and outside linebackers.

While at Albany, Hafley oversaw the development of cornerback/roverback Kurt Campbell, who went on to become the only player in school history to be selected in the NFL Draft. Campbell was drafted by the Green Bay Packers in 2005 and spent last season with the Tennessee Titans.

Hafley served as the running backs coach at Worcester Polytechnic Institute during the 2001 season. In addition to overseeing the running backs, he also worked significantly with WPI's special teams and coached the kickers.

Hafley was a four-year wide receiver at Siena College from 1997-2000. He began his coaching career at his alma mater while recovering from three separate surgeries that kept him off the field. Hafley is a 2001 cum laude graduate of Siena with a bachelor's degree in history. He earned his master's from Albany in 2003.

JOE TUMPKIN, who spent the past three seasons on the defensive staff at Southern Methodist University, joined Pitt as linebackers coach in February.

Tumpkin also coached the linebackers while with the Mustangs (2005-07), serving under then-SMU head coach Phil Bennett, who is now Pitt's defensive coordinator. While at SMU, Tumpkin oversaw the development of All-Conference USA linebacker Reggie Carrington. During the 2006 season, SMU earned bowl eligibility behind a defense that ranked 24th nationally against the run (107.5 yards/game).

In 2007, Tumpkin earned a coaching fellowship with the NFL's Tampa Bay Buccaneers. As part of the fellowship, he worked with Tampa Bay's coaching staff during the team's July training camp.

From 2002-04, Tumpkin served at Sam Houston State, where he coached the linebackers (2002-03) and secondary (2004). He was instrumental in the development of Sam Houston State linebackers T.J. Dibble, a two-time All-Southland selection, and Paul Donelson, who earned All-America honors. In 2004, the Bearkats captured a share of the Southland Conference championship, advanced to the NCAA Division I-AA playoffs and reached as high as No. 3 in the national rankings.

Tumpkin was the defensive coordinator at Lakeland College during the 2000 and '01 seasons. From 1998-99, he was the linebackers coach and recruiting coordinator at

Southern Illinois, where he helped mold Bart Scott, who has gone on to be a Pro Bowl performer with the Baltimore Ravens. In 1996 Tumpkin coached the linebackers at Defiance College.

Tumpkin's additional experience includes graduate assistantships at Lakeland (1994), Northern Michigan (1995) and Western Michigan (1997).

As a collegian, Tumpkin was a team captain and four-year letterman at Michigan Tech. He earned his bachelor's degree from Michigan Tech in 1994.

PITT

DAVID WALKER

RUNNING BACKS

DAVID WALKER was a key original appointment by Coach Dave Wannstedt in 2005 as Pitt has put a renewed emphasis on developing a potent and punishing running game. Entering his fourth season as running backs coach, Walker has helped Pitt take major steps in achieving that goal.

With Walker's influence, the Panthers might boast the best tailback-fullback tandem in the Big East — if not nationally — in sophomore LeSean McCoy and senior Conrudge Collins.

Last season, McCoy was the country's top freshman rusher with an average of 110.67 yards per game. He set a Big East freshman record with 1,328 yards on 276 carries (4.81 avg.), surpassing Terrell Willis' (Rutgers) mark of 1,261 set in 1993.

McCoy additionally set Pitt freshman records for points (90) and rushing touchdowns (14), eclipsing the legendary Tony Dorsett's 34-year-old marks (78 points, 13 rushing TDs in 1973).

McCoy was a unanimous Freshman All-American and additionally was selected first team All-Big East and the Big East Rookie of the Year.

Collins, a dangerous running and receiving threat, is considered one of the nation's finest at his position.

Before joining Pitt, Walker tutored four 1,000-yard rushers in his last five years as running backs coach at Syracuse. He served with the Orange from 1995-2004 and shaped an exceptional record of producing top-flight running backs. He counts among his protégés six backs who played in the National Football League.

The Orange boasted a potent 1-2 punch in the backfield in 2004 with All-Big East running backs Walter Reyes and Damien Rhodes combining for 1,673 yards and 17 touchdowns. Reyes finished his career as SU's second all-time leading rusher with 3,424 yards.

Walker oversaw four consecutive 1,000-yard rushers from 2000-03, a Syracuse record. In '03, Reyes rushed for 1,347 yards, the second-highest single-season total in school history. His 21 touchdowns set an Orange record.

Overall, Walker coached three of the Orange's top seven all-time leading rushers.

A 1993 graduate of Syracuse, Walker was an outstanding running back himself, twice earning All-Big East honors. He captained the 1992 team, leading it to a No. 6 national ranking, 10-2 overall record and 26-22 victory over Colorado in the Fiesta Bowl. Walker remains the sixth-leading rusher in Orange history with 2,643 yards.

Following a year as an assistant coach at Miami's Carol City High School in 1994-95, Walker rejoined his alma mater and helped the Orange to four Big East championships. Including his playing career, he has been part of 12 bowl games.

Walker earned his bachelor's degree in physical education in 1993.

NEW YORK JETS, 2006-07, offensive line.

TONY WISE, an accomplished 35-year coaching veteran of collegiate and professional football, was named Pitt's offensive line coach in January by Dave Wannstedt.

Wise spent the past 18 years coaching offensive lines in the National Football League, including the 2006 and '07 seasons with the New York Jets. Wise's Pitt appointment reunites him with Wannstedt, who he coached with on six prior occasions, and returns him to a place where he received one of his first college coaching positions.

Wannstedt and Wise first worked together on Jackie Sherrill's Pitt coaching staff during the 1977 and '78 seasons. Wannstedt coached receivers and special teams under Sherrill, while Wise was the Panthers' assistant offensive line coach. They would go on to serve on the same staffs with Oklahoma State, the University of Miami, the Dallas Cowboys and during Wannstedt's head coaching tenures with the Chicago Bears and Miami Dolphins.

Prior to his stint with the Jets, Wise spent four seasons with the Dolphins (2001-04). While at Miami, his offensive lines helped produce the two highest individual single-season rushing totals in franchise history. During the 2002 season, the Dolphins rushed for 156.4 yards per game to rank first in the AFC and second in the NFL.

From 1999-2000, Wise served with the Carolina Panthers. During the '99 season, Carolina averaged 4.3 yards per rush to rank fifth in the NFL.

Wise served on Wannstedt's Chicago staff from 1993-98, and also teamed with Pitt offensive coordinator Matt Cavanaugh, who held the same position with the Bears during the 1997 and '98 campaigns. In four of those six seasons, the Bears ranked in the top 10 of the NFL in fewest sacks allowed, including a league-low 15 in 1995. Wise added the duties of assistant head coach his final four seasons in Chicago.

Wise's NFL career began in 1989 with the Dallas Cowboys, where he coached the offensive line for four seasons (1989-92) under Jimmy Johnson. Wise's line paved the way for Emmitt Smith, who claimed back-to-back NFL rushing titles in 1991 and 1992. Smith rushed for 1,563 yards during the '91 campaign and 1,713 during the Cowboys' Super Bowl championship season in '92.

Dallas rolled past Buffalo, 52-17, in Super Bowl XXVII, the Cowboys' first NFL title in 15 years. Wise's offensive front was vital to the championship run, allowing the second-fewest sacks in the NFL (23). He coached a pair of 1992 Pro Bowlers in center Mark Stepnoski, a former Pitt standout, and guard Nate Newton.

Wise also served under Johnson while with the Miami Hurricanes from 1985-88. His UM tenure witnessed the Hurricanes' emergence as a national power. Miami went 34-2 during Wise's final three seasons there, including a 12-0 mark in winning the 1987 national championship.

A native of Newtonville, N.Y., Wise was an offensive lineman at Ithaca College from 1969-72. He also lettered in lacrosse at Ithaca and played on the school's hockey team. Wise began his coaching career in 1973 at Albany State, where he worked with the outside linebackers. He later coached the offensive lines at Bridgeport (1974), Central Connecticut (1975) and on Jackie Sherrill's staff at Washington State in 1976. Wise's additional collegiate stops include Oklahoma State (under Jimmy Johnson from 1979-83) and Syracuse (1984).

PITT

BUDDY MORRIS

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING

Looking to infuse the Pitt weight room with a new sense of purpose and dedication, Dave Wannstedt last year lured home BUDDY MORRIS as the Panthers' strength and conditioning coach.

The appointment paid immediate dividends as the Panthers played at their most physical level in recent seasons. Pitt produced its first 1,000-yard rusher in seven years and also boasted a defensive unit that ranked in the nation's top five.

Morris owns an accomplished history of training elite players at both the collegiate and NFL levels. The 1980 Pitt graduate previously served as the football team's strength and conditioning coach from 1980-89 and 1997-2001.

His workout regimens are highly regarded and include a focus on strength training, speed development, conditioning, agility training and flexibility.

"Buddy Morris has trained some of the greatest names in college and professional football," Wannstedt said. "He knows what it takes to make a football player — and a football team — reach his highest potential in strength training and physical conditioning."

Morris rejoined Pitt after serving at the University of Buffalo in 2006 as its director of sports performance and was directly responsible for training the Bulls' football team. Prior to Buffalo, he was the head strength and conditioning coach for the Cleveland Browns from 2002-05, serving under head coach Butch Davis.

In his prior Pitt training stints, Morris' pupils included such legendary figures as Jim Covert, Bill Fralic, Russ Grimm, Dan Marino and Mark Stepnoski among others. He additionally trained latter-day Pitt stars Ruben Brown and Curtis Martin, two of the NFL's most accomplished players over the past decade.

A former Pitt student-athlete himself, Morris was a four-year letterman in track and field for the Panthers from 1977-80. In addition, he helped create the familiar moniker of the Panthers' weight room, "The Pitt Iron Works."

CHRIS LaSALA is in his 12th year as director of football operations at the University of Pittsburgh. LaSala is in his ninth year as an assistant athletic director.

A native of nearby Aliquippa, Pa., LaSala is truly the Panthers' master of multi-tasking. He coordinates and oversees travel accommodations, youth summer camps, the annual coaches clinic, preseason camp arrangements and all day-to-day administration for the Pitt football team. LaSala also serves as the football program's liaison to numerous campus offices and within the athletic department.

In 2004 he was named a recipient of the prestigious Chancellor's Award for Staff Excellence in service to the University of Pittsburgh. In 2006 LaSala was recognized as an "Outstanding Graduate" of Temple University's sport/recreation administration program.

LaSala was a chief coordinator and planner for Pitt's move to its state-of-the-art practice facility, the UPMC Sports Performance Complex. He has been instrumental in the planning of Pitt's trips to the 2005 Tostitos Fiesta Bowl, 2003 Continental Tire Bowl, 2002 Insight Bowl, 2001 Visit Florida Tangerine Bowl, 2000 Insight.com Bowl and 1997 AXA/Equitable Liberty Bowl.

LaSala's career in athletics began at Temple, where he served as a graduate assistant. He then came to the University of Pittsburgh as an athletic department intern in 1989.

Prior to his 1997 Pitt appointment he served three years as the director of football operations at Boston College (1994-96), where he handled all the administrative duties for the football program, including overseeing the travel arrangements and organizing BC's youth camps.

During his BC tenure, the Eagles captured the 1994 Aloha Bowl and participated in the 1995 Kickoff Classic.

Before Boston College, LaSala spent four years at Temple (1990-93) as recruiting coordinator and ultimately was elevated to assistant athletic director. He initially joined Temple as a graduate assistant in 1988 and then returned to the Owls' football staff in 1990 as the administrative assistant.

LaSala graduated from West Virginia in 1988 with a bachelor's degree in accounting. He earned his master's degree in sports administration from Temple in 1991.

BOB JUNKO

DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL RELATIONS AND PROGRAM ENHANCEMENT

After spending nearly four decades in the coaching ranks, BOB JUNKO moved to the administrative side of college football last year as Pitt's director of football relations and program enhancement.

Junko is a natural for the role given his tremendous football acumen and contacts. Entering his second year in that capacity, he assists in the daily operations of the program and also has a focus on the Panthers' extended family of football alumni.

One of the best-known football figures in the tri-state area, Junko has been a highly valuable figure within the Pitt program. He played a major role in the Panthers' recent recruiting successes and in 2006 was named one of the nation's top 25 recruiters by Rivals.com.

The 2008 season marks the 12th year of Junko's second tour at Pittsburgh. He initially coached at Pitt from 1982-85, serving as defensive coordinator under head coach Foge Fazio. He returned in 1997 as defensive tackles coach under Walt Harris and was elevated to assistant head coach in 2000.

Prior to returning to Pittsburgh, Junko was the defensive coordinator at Kent State from 1995-96. Junko also served as the associate head coach and defensive coordinator for seven years at Akron (1988-94). He additionally held similar positions at Northwestern, TCU and Tulsa, his alma mater.

In his first stint with the Panthers, the 1982 team received a Cotton Bowl bid and finished ninth in the country. The 1983 Panthers earned a Fiesta Bowl berth and ranked 19th in the final polls.

Among the standouts on those defenses were tackle Bill Maas, defensive end Chris Doleman and defensive backs Tim Lewis and Tom Flynn, all of whom went on to careers in the NFL.

As a collegian, Junko starred at Tulsa as an inside linebacker and was an Honorable Mention All-American in 1967. He also was named to the All-Missouri Valley Conference team twice and served as team captain.

Junko earned a bachelor's degree in history education in 1968 and his master's in educational administration in 1970 at Tulsa. He was inducted into the University of Tulsa Sports Hall of Fame this past year.

Linebacker

6-2 • 240 • SR*

Export, Pa.

2008 Scouting Report: Blends intellect, intensity and pure athleticism to be one of the nation's elite linebackers... has been described as a "tackling machine" who is constantly drawn to the action like a magnet... a year ago McKillop was a virtual unknown after serving as an understudy to All-America middle linebacker H.B. Blades for two seasons... took over Blades' starting spot in 2007 and made it his own, leading the entire country in tackles while anchoring the Panthers' nationally ranked defense... was named to four different All-America squads following his breakthrough junior campaign... his national reputation continued to grow this offseason as he was named to virtually every national honors list... will be a strong candidate for college football's most prestigious defensive awards, including the Butkus Award, Bednarik Award, Bronko Nagurski Trophy and Rotary Lombardi Award. 2007: Started all 12 games at middle linebacker while becoming one of the country's most productive defenders... paced the entire country in tackles, averaging 12.58 per game, and ranked second in solos (8.17 avg.)... was the centerpiece of one of Pitt's finest defensive units in recent memory... the Panthers finished fifth nationally in total defense, yielding just 297.67 yards per game... named to four different All-America squads at season's end, including Scout.com (first team), Sports Illustrated (second team), CollegeFootballNews.com (second team) and The Associated Press (third team)... named the Big East Defensive Player of the Year by CollegeFootballNews.com... McKillop finished with 151 total tackles, perhaps none bigger than his effort to stop West Virginia's Steve Slaton on a 4th-and-3 situation late in the fourth quarter of

Pitt's 13-9 upset of the Mountaineers... had nine stops overall vs. WVU... collected a career-high 18 tackles and three TFLs vs. USF... also forced a fumble vs. the Bulls... at Rutgers had 16 tackles, 2.5 TFLs and 1.5 sacks, and was responsible for three takeaways by recovering two fumbles and intercepting a pass... Pitt's lone TD was set up by an incredible individual effort by McKillop when he sacked Rutgers QB Jabu Lovelace, forcing a fumble and recovering the loose ball all on the same play... was named Big East Defensive Player of the Week for his Rutgers performance... had 17 stops at Michigan State... had 16 tackles vs. Cincinnati... had 15 tackles at Virginia... had 14 tackles vs. Navy... had 12 tackles and a sack assist vs. Syracuse... had eight tackles vs. Grambling and deflected a pass that was intercepted by Eric Thatcher... made first career start in opener vs. Eastern Michigan and had a team-high eight tackles and a six-yard sack. 2006: Primary backup at middle linebacker... compiled 29 tackles on the season... had a season-high seven tackles at Cincinnati, including five on special teams... teamed with end Joe Clermond to make a key stop on fourth-and-inches in the fourth quarter vs. the Bearcats... coaching staff Special Teams Player of the Game for the Cincinnati contest... had six tackles with a TFL vs. Toledo... had two tackles with a six-yard sack vs. Virginia. 2005: In his first active collegiate season, lettered as the chief backup at middle linebacker... played in all 11 games and had 27 tackles on the season... saw his most extensive playing time at middle linebacker when H.B. Blades went down with an early injury at West Virginia... McKillop came on in relief and collected a season-high 13 stops versus the Mountaineers... had five tackles at Ohio. 2004: Redshirted as a true freshman. High School: Finished as the most productive defender in Kiski Area history with 332 career tackles... 161 career solo stops was also a school record... The Associated Press Pennsylvania Class AAAA All-State Team (first team)... Pittsburgh Post-Gazette "Fabulous 22"... Pittsburgh Tribune-Review "Terrific 25"... Harrisburg Patriot-News "Platinum 33"... Valley News All-Star... totaled 132 tackles his senior season... at fullback rushed for 1,121 yards and 14 touchdowns over his final two seasons... helped Kiski Area to three consecutive WPIAL Class AAAA playoff berths... a 2½-year starter, McKillop started on both sides of the ball his junior and senior seasons (linebacker and running back)... rated the No. 20 overall prospect in Pennsylvania by Rivals.com... rated the nation's No. 31 outside linebacker prospect by Rivals.com... rated the No. 24 prospect in Pennsylvania by SuperPrep... SuperPrep All-Northeast Team... PrepStar All-East Region... played under Coach Dave Grimm... selected to play in the Big 33 Football Classic... earned three letters in football, three in wrestling and two in track and field... enjoyed an exceptional wrestling career... finished his senior season as the state runner-up (215-pound division) with a 38-1 record... went 79-2 his last two years and had a career mark of 109-10... 41-1 mark as a junior was the winningest season ever by a Kiski wrestler... advanced to the WPIAL track and field championships in the shot and discus... Honor Roll... National Science Merit Award... member of the Pride Club, German Club and Wrestling Club. Personal: Scott Kenneth McKillop, born 3/4/86, is the son of Robert and Monika McKillop... has two brothers, including Chris, who was a defensive lineman at Pitt from 2003-07... brother Robert was a heavyweight wrestler at Slippery Rock University... graduated this past April with a bachelor's degree in business-marketing... currently pursuing a second degree in administration of justice... worked as an intern with the Pittsburgh Pirates, serving the Major League Baseball franchise in its special events department.

Pittsburgh, Pa.

2008 Scouting Report: Enters training camp as the leading candidate for Pitt's starting quarterback assignment... had actually earned that role last year and engineered the Panthers' season-opening victory over Eastern Michigan... unfortunately a thumb injury in that game would sideline him for the balance of the year...after receiving a medical redshirt, showed no lingering effects from the injury during a highly productive spring...very accurate passer who complements his physical skills with a thorough knowledge of the Panthers' offensive system...holds the distinction of being one of the most prolific passers in Western Pennsylvania's storied high school history. 2007: Began the 2007 season as Pitt's starting quarterback...injury, however, would force Stull to the sidelines as he received a medical redshirt...sustained a thumb injury on his right (throwing) hand vs. Eastern Michigan in the opener...would undergo surgery and not play for the balance of the year...the EMU game marked his first career start...threw for 177 yards on 14-of-20 passing with one TD in two-and-a-half quarters of playing time...TD pass was a 21-yarder to Oderick Turner...named the coaching staff's Offensive Player of the Game for the EMU contest. 2006: Came on in relief in four contests...was 6 of 8 for 69 yards with a TD on the season...threw his first career TD

PITT 27 • EASTERN MICHIGAN 3
SEPT. 1, 2007
HEINZ FIELD (36,183)

PITTSBURGH—Pitt opened the 2007 season in winning fashion, defeating Eastern Michigan, 27-3, at Heinz Field. The victory was Pitt's 10th in its last 11 season openers.

A strong defensive effort keyed the victory. The Panthers limited the Eagles to 145 yards in total offense, the lowest total by a Pitt season-opening opponent since 1989. Eastern Michigan (0-1) rushed for 39 yards on 23 carries, an average of just 1.7 per attempt.

The Panthers made their season debut with a new quarterback in junior Bill Stull. The primary backup to Tyler Palko each of the previous two seasons, Stull impressed in his first starting assignment by throwing for 177 yards on 14-of-20 passing. His 21-yard touchdown pass to Oderick Turner put Pitt in control early in the second period with a 14-3 lead.

Stull, however, would ultimately leave the game in the third quarter after injuring the thumb on his right (throwing) hand. Redshirt freshman Kevan Smith came on in relief over the final quarter-and-a-half and led Pitt to two scores — Conor Lee field goals of 28 and 35 yards — while completing 2-of-4 passes for 18 yards.

After managing just 19 yards on 13 carries in the first half, Pitt's rushing game came to life over the final two quarters.

Freshman LeSean McCoy made his collegiate debut by rushing for a game-high 68 yards on 10 carries, averaging nearly seven yards per attempt. LaRod Stephens-Howling had 67 yards on 16 carries (4.2 avg.).

Former tailback Shane Brooks scored a pair of one-yard touchdowns from the fullback position, giving him the first TDs of his career.

Pitt bottled up Eastern Michigan's offense all game long. EMU quarterback Andy Schmitt was 16 of 27 for 106 yards but didn't complete a pass over 15 yards. Only one Eagles' ball carrier had more than five yards rushing, Pierre Walker, who finished with 30 yards on 11 carries.

Middle linebacker Scott McKillop, making his first collegiate start, had eight tackles and a six-yard sack. Gus Mustakas anchored the defensive front with five tackles, including two for losses. Redshirt frosh Ricky Gary earned the start at cornerback and had an interception late in the first quarter that set up Pitt's second touchdown.

Pitt improved to 2-0 all-time against Eastern Michigan and 25-2 against teams from the Mid-American Conference.

GAME 2

PITT 34 • GRAMBLING STATE 10
SEPT. 8, 2007
HEINZ FIELD (30,852)

PITTSBURGH—Pitt freshman tailback LeSean McCoy rushed for three touchdowns in the opening quarter and quarterback Kevan Smith threw for 202 yards and a TD in his first start to lift Pitt past Grambling State, 34-10, at Heinz Field.

Smith gained his first start after Bill Stull was lost for an indefinite period due to a thumb injury sustained the previous week in the opener against Eastern Michigan.

In only the second game action of his collegiate career, Smith completed 15-of-22 passes, including a 50-yard touchdown to Nate Byham in the second period that put the Panthers up 28-10.

McCoy scored three touchdowns in less than four-and-a-half minutes in the first quarter to propel Pitt to a 21-0 lead. He finished with 107 yards on 19 carries, an average of 5.6 yards per rush.

McCoy's three rushing touchdowns were one shy of the Pitt freshman single-game mark set by Elliott Walker in 1974 (four vs. Temple). McCoy scored on runs of 5, 7 and 13 yards within a 4:19 span.

The last Pitt freshman to rush for at least 100 yards was LaRod Stephens-Howling against Syracuse in 2005. Stephens-Howling started against Grambling but left the contest early after injuring his ribs.

McCoy's final two TDs were set up by a pair of gems by Pitt's defensive and special teams units.

Brian Kaiser blocked a Grambling punt to give the Panthers possession at the Tigers' seven-yard line, where McCoy scored from on the very next play.

Eric Thatcher then intercepted a Grambling pass that was tipped by Scott McKillop to set Pitt up at the Tigers' 31. Two plays later McCoy scored his final touchdown, giving Pitt a commanding 21-0 lead just 11 minutes into the contest.

GAME SUMMARIES

Pitt's defense would limit the speedy Tigers to 239 total yards and just 84 on the ground. The Panthers intercepted three passes. In addition to Thatcher, Pitt also got thefts from Mike Phillips and Lowell Robinson.

Conor Lee kicked field goals of 20 and 27 yards to complete Pitt's scoring. He additionally converted each of his four extra-point attempts, running his PAT streak to 54 straight.

Pitt improved to 7-0 all-time against I-AA (renamed Football Championship Subdivision) teams. It was the Panthers' first-ever game against Grambling State.

GAME 3

MICHIGAN STATE 17 • PITT 13

SEPT. 15, 2007

SPARTAN STADIUM (68,620)

EAST LANSING, MICH.—Making its first visit to East Lansing since 1958, Pitt fought Michigan State until the game's final play. But in the end, Kevan Smith's desperation pass from the Spartan 40 fell incomplete as time expired giving host Michigan State a 17-13 victory.

Three Pitt turnovers proved decisive in the contest. Each led to Michigan State's three scores, including a 31-yard interception return for a touchdown by Travis Key in the second quarter that gave the Spartans a 14-7 lead it would not surrender.

Michigan State's other scores came on a short field following Pitt miscues. Jehuu Caulcrick rushed for a two-yard touchdown early in the second period after the Spartans took over at the Pitt 35 following an interception. Michigan State's final points, a 23-yard field goal with 2:54 left, were set up by a Pitt fumble at its own 22.

In contrast, the Spartans (3-0) did not have a single turnover on the afternoon.

Pitt's defense played valiantly in the loss, limiting the Spartans' potent backfield to 2.8 yards per rush and collecting six quarterback sacks. Michigan State had been churning out 220 yards on the ground and yielded just two total sacks heading into its contest with Pitt (2-1).

Defensive tackle Rashaad Duncan had two sacks himself and three total tackles for losses to lead the Panthers up front, while linebacker Scott McKillop collected a game and career-high 17 tackles.

The Panthers' offensive spark came from freshman tailback LeSean McCoy. Making his first start, McCoy rushed for 172 yards on 25 carries, a 6.9-yard average. He ripped off a 64-yard touchdown in the second quarter to tie the game, 7-7.

It was the second consecutive 100-yard outing for McCoy, who also lined up at quarterback in the shotgun formation during the second half as Pitt deployed a new offensive wrinkle to take advantage of his running ability.

McCoy became the first Pitt freshman to compile back-to-back 100-yard games since Curtis Martin in 1991. McCoy's 172 yards marked the seventh best single-game rushing performance by a Pitt freshman all-time.

Smith, making just his second start and his first on the road, finished 9 of 18 for 85 yards with two interceptions. Conor Lee accounted for the Panthers' other scores, converting field goals of 41 and 29 yards.

GAME 4

CONNECTICUT 34 • PITT 14
SEPT. 22, 2007
HEINZ FIELD (40,145)

PITTSBURGH—Pitt opened Big East Conference play on a losing note, dropping a 34-14 decision to visiting Connecticut at Heinz Field.

Similar to the Michigan State loss a week prior, turnovers proved to be the Panthers' undoing. Pitt threw four interceptions and lost two fumbles.

The unbeaten Huskies (4-0, 1-0 Big East) parlayed three of those turnovers into 17 points, building a 34-7 lead early in the fourth period. Pitt also hurt its cause with eight penalties for 57 yards.

The Panthers (2-2, 0-1) found themselves in a game of catch up in the contest's opening minutes. Connecticut's Danny Lamsanah intercepted a pass and returned it 26 yards deep into Pitt territory. Lou Allen then scored from one-yard out to give UConn a 7-0 lead less than two minutes into the game.

The lead would expand to 10-0 later in the quarter before Pitt got a spark from LeSean McCoy. Taking a direct snap, McCoy rushed left and then pulled up and completed an 18-yard pass to Nate Byham. The freshman tailback then had a dazzling 24-yard run before breaking lose on a 19-yard touchdown rush to make it 10-7 with 9:20 to go in the second quarter.

Unfortunately, that would be as close as Pitt would get. Connecticut responded with an eight-play, 60-yard scoring drive capped by Donald Brown's short TD run to make it 17-7. The Huskies would add 10 more points before halftime, including a 39-yard field goal as time expired that was set up by a Pitt fumble at its own 30.

Quarterback Tyler Lorenzen provided the offensive fuel for UConn. The junior-college transfer threw for 149 yards on 10-of-14 passing to help the Huskies to their bulging 20-point halftime lead.

In the second half, Pitt looked to freshman quarterback Pat Bostick, who experienced the first significant playing time of his career.

Playing the final two quarters, Bostick completed 27-of-41 passes for 230 yards and a 21-yard TD to Oderick Turner. Connecticut picked off three of his passes, though, including one that was returned 51 yards for a touchdown by Lawrence Wilson.

Bostick's touchdown drive covered 86 yards in 10 plays. On his TD throw, Bostick scrambled away from pressure and found Turner in the left corner of the end zone to make it 34-14 with 4:35 left.

It was Pitt's second consecutive loss to Connecticut.

GAME 5

VIRGINIA 44 • PITT 14
SEPT. 29, 2007
SCOTT STADIUM (60,888)

CHARLOTTESVILLE—A huge first quarter scoring onslaught by Virginia ultimately doomed Pitt as the host Cavaliers cruised to a 44-14 victory at Scott Stadium.

Pitt found itself in a 20-0 hole just eight minutes into the contest and 27-0 after one period. The large early deficit proved too much for the Panthers, who were featuring a true freshman in Pat Bostick as their starting quarterback.

Inexperience under center, though, was not the decisive factor in this game. The Cavaliers scored on their first five possessions, including four touchdowns in the opening quarter. The longest TD drive covered just 51 yards, however, as favorable field position played a significant role in the early going.

GAME SUMMARIES

Another major factor was the exceptional play of Virginia quarterback Jameel Sewell, who threw three TDs in the first period. Sewell's scoring strikes covered two, 18 and five yards. He also proved to be an effective weapon on the ground, rushing for 64 yards on 12 carries.

Pitt did not help its cause, fumbling away a kickoff return at its own 26 after already trailing 13-0. On its next possession, Pitt had to punt away to Vic Hall, whose 45-yard return put Virginia at the Panthers' 26. Six plays later, Cedric Peerman rushed in from one yard out to put the Cavaliers up 27-0.

Virginia's lead would expand to 30-0 before Pitt finally got on the board. Freshman defensive lineman Tyler Tkach pounced on a muffed punt return at the UVA 22. Bostick then hooked up with Oderick Turner on a 19-yard pass to set up a one-yard scoring run by LeSean McCoy, making it 30-7 with five minutes to go in the half.

The Panthers closed to 30-14 early in the fourth period when Turner jumped over a Virginia defender to haul in a two-yard touchdown catch. It would be as close as Pitt would get. Less than three minutes later, Peerman had a 13-yard scoring run to boost the lead back to 23 points.

Bostick played solidly in his first career start, completing 18-of-31 passes for 181 yards with a touchdown and interception.

Scott McKillop collected a game-high 15 tackles, while Greg Romeus had three tackles for losses. Joe Clermond blocked Virginia's initial extra-point attempt of the night, marking Pitt's first blocked PAT since the 2003 season.

The Panthers lost their third consecutive game to fall to 2-3 on the season. Following a season-opening loss, the Cavaliers notched their fourth consecutive win to improve to 4-1.

Pitt played Virginia in Charlottesville for the first time since the 1953 season.

GAME 6

NAVY 48 • PITT 45 (2OT)

OCT. 10, 2007

HEINZ FIELD (30,103)

PITTSBURGH—Playing a rare Wednesday night game, Pitt and Navy entertained a national ESPN television audience with a back-and-forth affair that went two overtimes.

Unfortunately for the Panthers, the end result was a 48-45 loss that was not decided until freshman quarterback Pat Bostick's fourth-down pass from the Navy 2 fell incomplete in the final OT period.

Navy's Joey Bullen kicked a 29-yard field goal to put the Midshipmen up by three. Pitt got the ball back and appeared ready to score a game-winning touchdown when it gained a first-and-goal at the Navy 9. Bostick hit Marcel Pestano for 16 yards on the Panthers' first offensive play of the second overtime to set up the opportunity.

Two running plays moved the ball to the Navy 2. However, two successive passes to the right corner of the end zone fell incomplete, giving the Midshipmen their first victory over the Panthers since 1985.

Pitt fell to 2-4 on the season despite LeSean McCoy's 165 yards rushing and three touchdowns. It was McCoy's third 100-yard game of the year and the second time in six collegiate games he rushed for three TDs.

In a game that featured very little defense, Navy countered with its own potent rushing attack. Featuring the nation's top-ranked ground game, the Midshipmen piled up 331 yards on the ground, led by quarterback Kaipo-Noa Kaheaku-Enhada.

Kaheaku-Enhada ran for 122 yards and a touchdown, while also completing 9-of-12 passes for 166 yards and two scores.

His second touchdown pass came in the first overtime period. After Pitt had gained a 45-38 lead on a one-yard Bostick sneak, Kaheaku-Enhada came right back on the next play with a 25-yard strike to Reggie Campbell to force another OT.

The Midshipmen improved to 4-2 with the victory. It was the first meeting between the Panthers and Navy since a 31-14 Pitt victory in 1989.

Despite the loss, Bostick had his most encouraging performance to date. Making his second consecutive start, the freshman completed 71% of his passes (20 of 28) for 191 yards with a touchdown and an interception. Defensively, middle linebacker Scott McKillop compiled a game-high 14 tackles.

The game's honorary captains were Pitt's Tony Dorsett and Navy's Roger Staubach, teammates with the Dallas Cowboys' Super Bowl teams of the 1970s. Additionally, Pitt honored former running back Curtis Martin, who recently retired as the NFL's No. 4 career rusher.

GAME 7

PITT 24 • CINCINNATI 17

OCT. 20, 2007

HEINZ FIELD (33,423)

PITTSBURGH—Pitt used a double-barrel rushing attack and stout defensive effort to defeat nationally ranked Cincinnati, 24-17, at Heinz Field.

The victory snapped a four-game losing skid for the Panthers (3-4, 1-1 Big East), who overcame deficits of 10-0 and 17-10. Cincinnati, ranked 23rd coming into the contest, fell to 0-7 all-time against Pitt.

LaRod Stephens-Howling rushed for 100 yards and scored the go-ahead touchdown with 5:03 to play, while LeSean McCoy had 137 yards on 25 carries to help the Panthers beat a ranked opponent for the first time since 2004.

Pitt took its first lead when Stephens-Howling scored on a seven-yard run in the fourth quarter. The Panthers ended the Bearcats' final threat when Aaron Berry intercepted a deep pass at the Pitt 17 with 2:48 left.

Pitt iced the game with five consecutive runs by McCoy, giving the Panthers their first win over a ranked foe since Nov. 25, 2004, when they defeated No. 21 West Virginia, 16-13.

Cincinnati (6-2, 1-2) entered the game with the Big East's top rushing defense, yielding just 86.7 yards per game. But Pitt's ground attack proved the difference in this contest, compiling a season-high 260 yards.

The Panthers ended up with two 100-yard rushers in a game for the first time since Curvin Richards (202) and Darnell Dickerson (108) did it in a victory over Rutgers on Nov. 5, 1988.

Another decisive factor was the Panthers' defense, which forced three turnovers in the fourth quarter, including a pair of fumble recoveries that led to 11 Pitt points. The Panthers' winning drive began at their own 39 after Shane Murray stripped a Bearcat receiver and Kennard Cox pounced on the loose ball with 10:05 left in the game.

Middle linebacker Scott McKillop spearheaded the defensive effort with a game-high 16 tackles. Pitt held the Bearcats, who had been averaging 40.6 points, to 17 for the game and zero in the second half.

Placekicker Conor Lee matched his career high with 10 points, kicking field goals of 41, 25 and 37 yards. Lee also extended his school-record extra-point streak to 66 straight. His lone PAT of the day tied the game at 10-10 after Pat Bostick hit Darrell Strong on a four-yard scoring pass in the second quarter.

Bostick finished 18 of 29 for 167 yards with one touchdown and one interception. He additionally hit Oderick Turner with a 2-point conversion pass to give the Panthers a seven-point lead following their final touchdown.

Dave Wannstedt was forced to coach the game from the press box after undergoing surgery earlier in the week on a torn Achilles' tendon as well as his left knee.

GAME 8

LOUISVILLE 24 • PITT 17

OCT. 27, 2007

PAPA JOHN'S CARDINAL STADIUM (34,792)

LOUISVILLE—Pitt rallied from a 10-point deficit in the fourth quarter but ultimately fell, 24-17, to host Louisville at Papa John's Cardinal Stadium.

The Panthers scored 10 points in just over six minutes to tie the game at 17 with 4:27 left in the game. The Cardinals' outstanding senior quarterback Brian Brohm, however, responded by directing a seven-play, 70-yard touchdown drive that gave the lead, and eventually the game, back to Louisville.

A series of Brohm passes set up a one-yard scoring run by Brock Bolen to put Louisville back up by seven with 1:54 remaining. The Panthers, though, launched one final drive that brought them to the doorstep of a game-tying touchdown. LeSean McCoy ran three times for 45 yards and Pat Bostick hit Oderick Turner on a 19-yard crossing route to give Pitt a 1st-and-goal at the Cardinals' 1.

Turner's catch was initially called a touchdown but an official replay ruled that his knee hit the ground just before the goal line.

Pitt lost the opportunity for overtime when it fumbled the exchange on a handoff. Louisville's Lou Council recovered it to end the threat. The Cardinals ran out the final 1:10 to secure their seventh consecutive victory over the Panthers.

Despite the heartbreaking defeat, Pitt (3-5, 1-2 Big East) received encouraging performances on both sides of the ball.

After being limited to only 49 yards in the first half, the Panthers came to life offensively in the final quarter.

Pitt pulled to within 17-10 on a 35-yard field goal by Conor Lee. The drive was keyed by a 35-yard catch by freshman Maurice Williams. On the Panthers' next possession, Bostick engineered a 76-yard, 12-play touchdown drive to tie the game at 17. The frosh quarterback completed four passes for 64 yards on the march to put Pitt at the Cardinals' 7. Facing a 4th-and-1, McCoy then got the call and dragged multiple defenders into the end zone for the tying score.

McCoy rushed for 120 yards on the day and also had three receptions for 60 more. He scored Pitt's first touchdown on a 27-yard catch off a gadget-play pass from tight end Darrell Strong to make it 14-7 in the second quarter.

Defensively the Panthers received excellent performances from their front four. Mick Williams and Greg Romeus each had six tackles and a sack, while John Malecki prefaced Pitt's rally by blocking a field goal early in the fourth quarter. Cornerback Aaron Berry had an interception that Pitt parlayed into its first TD.

Louisville (5-4, 2-2) finished with 356 yards, 173 yards fewer than its average.

GAME 9

PITT 20 • SYRACUSE 17

NOV. 3, 2007

HEINZ FIELD (31,374)

PITTSBURGH—In a contest short on style points, Pitt used a strong defensive effort, some big plays in the return game and another exceptional outing from its freshman tailback to defeat visiting Syracuse, 20-17.

McCoy, who became just the third freshman in Pitt football history to rush for 1,000 yards in a season, scored the go-ahead touchdown from the 1 early in the final quarter, snapping a 10-10 tie.

McCoy rushed for 140 yards on 31 carries to achieve his sixth 100-yard game of the year, the most by any Pitt freshman since the legendary Tony Dorsett had 10 century games in 1973. McCoy's performance put him at 1,065 yards on the year, trailing only Dorsett (1,686 yards) and Curvin Richards (1,228 yards in 1988) among Pitt freshmen.

PITT

The Panthers managed only 294 total yards but overcame their lack of offensive production with a smothering defensive effort.

Pitt limited Syracuse to 265 yards and had six quarterback sacks. The Orange gained only 30 yards rushing on 31 carries. Joe Clermond was a fixture in the Syracuse backfield, collecting 2.5 sacks to go with seven total tackles and a forced fumble.

Still, Pitt (4-5, 2-2 Big East) needed a pass breakup by Aaron Berry near the Pitt goal line with a second left to preserve the victory.

After Conor Lee converted a 32-yard field goal to make it 20-10 with 3:21 left, Syracuse reserve quarterback Cameron Dantley quickly rallied the Orange to within three points when he hit Mike Williams on a three-yard touchdown pass.

Pitt gained possession at the Orange 39 after the ensuing onside kick went out of bounds with 1:46 remaining. The Panthers, though, turned the ball over on downs when they failed to convert a 4th-and-1 just over a minute later.

The Orange (2-7, 1-3) moved as far as their 49, where Dantley launched his desperation heave that fell incomplete with Berry on the coverage.

Pitt's special teams also figured prominently in the victory. In addition to his work in the secondary, Berry averaged 17.7 yards on six punt returns, including a 53-yarder that set the Panthers up at the Orange 13 on the final play of the third quarter. McCoy scored his touchdown three plays later to put Pitt ahead to stay, 17-10.

Pitt's other touchdown, a 17-yard pass from Pat Bostick to Oderick Turner, came after a 64-yard kickoff return by Lowell Robinson in the second period. Pitt trailed 3-0 when Robinson popped his big return to the Orange 23, setting up the TD pass.

It was Pitt's fifth victory in its last six games against Syracuse.

GAME 10

RUTGERS 20 • PITT 16

NOV. 17, 2007

RUTGERS STADIUM (43,531)

PISCATAWAY, N.J.—Missed opportunities ultimately doomed Pitt in a 20-16 loss at Rutgers.

Five Pitt drives began in Rutgers territory, but the Panthers were only able to parlay those opportunities into 13 points.

Still, Pitt had a chance to seize the victory when a last-minute drive reached the Rutgers six-yard line with under 30 seconds remaining in the game. The march began with 2:40 left when the Panthers took over at their own 40 following a Rutgers punt.

Pitt appeared ready to score a game-winning touchdown when Pat Bostick hit Darrell Strong on a 28-yard pass play, giving the Panthers a 1st-and-goal at the six with 25 seconds to play.

Two plays later, Bostick threw to a leaping Oderick Turner on a fade route for an apparent touchdown with 19 seconds remaining. The catch was wiped out, however, by a controversial offensive pass interference penalty. Any chance for a victory was lost on the next play when Devin McCourty intercepted a Pitt pass in the end zone.

Rutgers improved to 7-4 overall and 3-3 in the Big East with the victory. Pitt fell to 4-6 and 2-3.

Pitt's defense was smothering in this game, forcing four turnovers and limiting the Scarlet Knights to 219 total yards. Rutgers had been averaging 460 yards per game to rank 16th nationally.

Scott McKillop led the charge with a heroic effort from his middle linebacker spot, collecting 16 tackles, 1.5 sacks, two fumble recoveries and an interception.

Rutgers' Ray Rice, who entered the contest as the nation's third-leading rusher averaging 150 yards per game, was held to 112 on 26 carries. Rice was able to break free on just one run, a 28-yard touchdown in the second quarter that gave the Scarlet Knights a 17-10 lead they ultimately never surrendered. Otherwise, he was held in check for most of the afternoon as was the Rutgers pass game, which was just 5 of 17 for 108 yards with two interceptions.

Pitt, however, was unable to take advantage of the turnovers or field position. Each turnover gave the Panthers the ball in Rutgers territory, including three inside the Scarlet Knights' 25. The Panthers failed to capitalize, scoring just one touchdown off those opportunities — a one-yard scoring pass from Bostick to Strong that gave Pitt a 10-3 lead in the first quarter.

USF 48 • PITT 37

NOV. 24, 2007

HEINZ FIELD (31,123)

PITTSBURGH—USF quarterback Matt Grothe ran 80 yards for a touchdown on the very first play of the second half and the Bulls parlayed three interceptions into touchdowns en route to a 48-37 victory over Pitt.

USF's Nate Allen and Trae Williams each scored on interception returns, while Ben Moffit returned a pick 60 yards to the Pitt 1 to help the Bulls erase a 14-10 halftime deficit. The Panthers appeared poised to achieve an upset in the first half, seizing leads of 7-0 and 14-7. However, Pitt would be outscored 38-23 over the final two quarters.

Pitt did a solid job of containing the slippery Grothe for most of the game. The sophomore netted just 67 yards on the ground and threw for only 159. His long scoring run, though, opened the door to 24 unanswered points and a 34-14 lead.

Pitt freshman tailback LeSean McCoy scored three rushing touchdowns, including a pair of one-yard plunges and a 12-yard run. It was the third time this season McCoy rushed for three touchdowns in a game as he eclipsed a pair of 34-year-old Pitt freshman records in the process.

McCoy's three touchdowns gave him 90 points on the season, surpassing Tony Dorsett's Pitt freshman record of 78 points set in 1973. McCoy also scored his 14th rushing TD of the year, breaking Dorsett's frosh mark of 13.

Although he reached the end zone three times, McCoy found very few running lanes on this afternoon, finishing with 55 yards on 18 carries. He did, however, catch six passes for 83 yards.

Pitt's other true freshman starter, quarterback Pat Bostick, put up some of his best statistics of the season but struggled overall against the fast USF defense. Bostick completed 24-of-37 passes for a career-high 298 yards. He also threw a personal-best two touchdowns, including a beautiful 37-yarder to fellow frosh Maurice Williams and a 10-yarder to Darrell Strong.

During the decisive second half, however, USF snagged its three game-changing interceptions to turn momentum, and ultimately the game, over to the Bulls.

The Panthers (4-7, 2-4) outgained USF in total yards, 393 to 352, and also had more first downs (20 to 18).

Linebacker Scott McKillop again led Pitt's defensive charge, collecting a career-high 18 tackles, including three for losses. The Panthers sacked Grothe five times, including two by defensive end Joe Clermond.

It was USF's second consecutive victory over Pitt and improved the Bulls to 9-3 on the season and 4-3 in the Big East.

GAME 12

PITT 13 • WEST VIRGINIA 9

DEC. 1, 2007

MILAN PUSKAR STADIUM (60,100)

MORGANTOWN, W.Va.—The 100th edition of the Backyard Brawl figured to be historic, if only because the number of games played between two longtime foes reached a milestone total.

But the 2007 regular-season finale between Pitt and West Virginia went beyond a mere anniversary. In what will be remembered as one of the most dramatic and unexpected results in this intense rivalry, the Panthers upset the Mountaineers, 13-9.

West Virginia entered the game entertaining BCS title game hopes. The Mountaineers were ranked No. 2 in the BCS ratings and also boasted a No. 1 ranking in the USA Today coaches poll.

Those BCS aspirations, however, would be upended by the four-touchdown underdog Panthers, who used a dominating defensive effort to claim the victory. Facing one of the nation's most explosive offenses, Pitt put a stranglehold on West Virginia's array of dangerous skill players.

The Mountaineers entered the contest averaging 41.6 points and 474.8 yards per game. They would finish this contest with just one touchdown and 183 total yards.

Moreover, the Panthers limited West Virginia to just 104 yards on the ground, its lowest single-game rushing total in six years. The Mountaineers' total offense and point totals were their lowest since 2003.

The offensive star of the night was Pitt's freshman tailback, LeSean McCoy. Despite being the focus of West Virginia's defense, McCoy ran for 148 yards on 38 carries.

The Panthers played ball control all evening long behind McCoy's running. Pitt held a 36:19 to 23:41 edge in time of possession that proved key in the game's result.

Pitt entered halftime trailing 7-3 after Conor Lee kicked a career-long 48-yard field goal as the second quarter expired. On the opening kickoff of the second half, Jovani Chappel stripped WVU return man Vaughn Rivers of the ball and Lowell Robinson recovered at the Mountaineers' 48.

Pitt then used 11 plays to reach the end zone, including a fake punt by Shane Murray, to take a 10-7 lead. Pat Bostick scored the TD on a one-yard plunge.

The Panthers would add another Lee field goal, this one from 18 yards, to go up 13-7 with 6:17 left.

WVU appeared poised to reclaim the lead when Noel Divine returned the subsequent kickoff 48 yards to the Pitt 33. Quarterback Pat White, who left the game late in the second quarter with a thumb injury, returned to the field to try to engineer some late-game heroics.

Pitt, however, would not even allow a first down. Scott McKillop made the initial contact to keep Steve Slaton a yard shy on 4th-and-3. West Virginia would get one final chance, but a desperation pass on 4th-and-long went out of the end zone, giving the ball and ultimately the game to Pitt with 1:34 left.

Punter Dave Brytus closed the game by running out of the end zone to take a safety as time expired, setting off a jubilant Panther celebration at Milan Puskar Stadium.

RATING SYSTEMS

To settle countless arguments, Sports Illustrated in 1970 researched the first and only complete and wholly accurate list ever compiled of college football's mythical national champions. Every recognized authority that ever presumed to name a No. 1 was included:

Associated Press (1936-current) poll of sportswriters and broadcasters.

Parke H. Davis Ratings (1889-1935) chosen by Davis, a player at Princeton in 1889 and a former coach at Wisconsin, Amherst and Lafayette, and first published in the 1934 Spalding's Football Guide.

Dickinson System (1924-40) chosen by University of Illinois economics professor Frank G. Dickinson; based on system that awarded various point totals for wins over teams with winning or non-winning records.

Dunkel System (1929-current) a power index rating system devised by Dick Dunkel and syndicated to newspapers around the nation.

Football Writers Association of America (1954-current) chosen by a five-man committee representing membership.

Helms First Interstate Bank Athletic Foundation (1889-1982) originally founded in 1936 as Helms Athletic Foundation and changed in the early 1970s to Citizens Savings Athletic Foundation before current name was adopted in 1981.

Illustrated Football Annual (1924-41) an "azzi ratem" system published in this highly regarded magazine by William F. Boand.

Litkenhouse System (1934-1984) a "difference-by-score" method syndicated by Fred Litkenhouse and his brother Edward.

National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame (1959-1995) chosen annually by committee representing membership.

The Football Thesaurus (1927-58) system devised by Duke Houlgate and published in book of same title.

United Press International (1950-1995) poll of 35 college coaches. (Became the USA Today coaches poll.)

Williamson System (1932-63) system of syndicated power ratings chosen by Paul Williamson, a geologist and member of the Sugar Bowl committee.

Tony Dorsett and John Majors led Pittsburgh to its last national championship in 1976.

The Bowl Championship Series (BCS) was devised in 1998 to determine a national champion for college football. The arrangement matches the country's two top-rated teams against each other in a title game. Participating bowls include the Fiesta, Orange, Rose and Sugar. In addition to those four games, a BCS National Championship Game will be played at one of the bowl sites, which began for the 2006 season.

Dan Marino (left) is the fourth Panther player to receive induction into the Pro Football Hall of Fame. Tony Dorsett, Mike Ditka and Joe Schmidt are the others. Mark May (bottom left) became the 23rd Panther player or coach to be inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2005.

PRO FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

DAN MARINO is the latest Pitt player to earn induction into the Pro Football Hall of Fame, officially receiving the honor on Aug. 7, 2005. Marino had a legendary 17-year career with the Miami Dolphins. An eight-time Pro Bowler, he retired after the 1999 season holding an incredible 25 NFL regular-season records and as the career leader in passing attempts (8,358), completions (4,967), yardage (61,361) and touchdowns (420). He was also one of the winningest quarterbacks in NFL history, earning 147 regular-season victories, one behind all-time leader John Elway.

TONY DORSETT was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1994. When he retired from the NFL following the 1989 season, he was the league's second all-time leading rusher with 12,739 yards. Dorsett has the distinction of being one of only two players in the history of football to win the Heisman Trophy, a collegiate national championship, a Super Bowl championship, and to be elected into the college and pro football halls of fame.

MIKE DITKA was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1988. Ditka was an All-America tight end at Pitt in 1960, his senior season. Ditka's pro football career included All-Pro honors. He also was a member of the Chicago Bears' 1963 NFL Championship squad. Ditka worked as an assistant coach at Dallas for nine seasons, spent 11 seasons as the head coach of the Chicago Bears and three seasons as head coach of the New Orleans Saints.

JOE SCHMIDT, Pitt's other inductee in the Pro Football Hall of Fame, was an All-America linebacker at Pitt in 1952. He went on to spend 13 years with the Detroit Lions, and was a member of the Lions' two NFL championship teams. He later coached the team for six seasons and led Detroit to its only playoff appearance of the 1970s. He was inducted in 1973.

PITT

RETIRED JERSEYS

Dan Marino

Quarterback

1979 - 82

13

- While at Pitt from 1979-82, broke nearly every major passing record in school history, including career marks for passing yards (8,597) and completions (693).
- Twenty-six years after his final collegiate season, still holds Pitt records for touchdown passes in a career (79) and season (37).
- Led Pitt to four consecutive Top 10 finishes, including a pair of No. 2 rankings.
- Enhanced his reputation for delivering in the clutch in the 1982 Sugar Bowl, when he threw a 33-yard touchdown pass to tight end John Brown with 35 seconds left to give Pitt a come-from-behind 24-20 victory over Georgia.
- Named a 1981 All-American and finished fourth in the Heisman Trophy balloting that year.
- A first-round draft pick of the Miami Dolphins in 1983, Marino went on to gain recognition as one of the greatest quarterbacks in NFL history with a record-breaking 17-year career. He retired following the 1999 season as the league's all-time leader in passing attempts (8,358), completions (4,967), yardage (61,361) and touchdowns (420).
- Was elected into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2002 and the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2005.
- Named a special trustee for the University of Pittsburgh in June 2008.

Tony Dorsett

Running Back

1973 - 76

33

- Winner of the 1976 Heisman Trophy, Maxwell Award and Walter Camp Award and was a four-time All-American (1973-76).
- First player in NCAA history to reach 6,000 career rushing yards. Including bowl games, rushed for 6,526 yards. His NCAA-recognized total (not including bowls) of 6,082 yards stood as the Division I record for 22 years (1976-98).
- Gained 100 or more yards 36 times, including 20 consecutive games.
- Remains Pitt's all-time leading scorer with 380 points.
- Holds Notre Dame opponent records for rushing yards against the Irish in a career (754) and game (303).
- Led Pitt to the 1976 national championship with a 12-0 record.
- In 1977, was the first-round pick of the Dallas Cowboys where he played 11 seasons (1977-87), including two Super Bowls and four Pro Bowls. Played his final year with the Denver Broncos (1988) and finished his career as the second all-time leading rusher in NFL history (12,739).
- Was elected into the College Football Hall of Fame and Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1994.

Marshall Goldberg

Running Back

1936 - 38

42

- Earned back-to-back All-America honors as a halfback (1937) and fullback (1938).
- Member of the famed "Dream Backfield" at Pitt, considered one of college football's greatest back tandems ever.
- Was the runner-up for the Heisman Trophy in 1938 and placed third in the Heisman balloting in 1937.
- Led Pitt to national championships in 1936 and 1937 with a combined 17-1-2 record.
- Spent seven years in the NFL playing halfback for the Chicago Cardinals (1939-42, 46-48).
- Member of the Cardinals' 1947 NFL championship team and had his No. 99 jersey retired by the franchise.
- Elected into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1958.

Joe Schmidt

Linebacker

1950 - 52

65

- Earned All-America honors as a senior linebacker in 1952.
- As both a collegian and professional, Schmidt was considered the era's prototype for linebacker play — instinctive, aggressive and smart.
- Played in 10 Pro Bowls during his 13-year career (1953-65) with the Detroit Lions, which included two NFL championships.
- Served as the Lions head coach from 1967-72, leading Detroit to its only playoff appearance in the 1970s.
- Elected into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1973 and College Football Hall of Fame in 2000.

Mark May

Offensive Tackle

1977-80

73

- Named a unanimous All-American and the winner of the prestigious Outland Trophy in 1980. To this day he remains Pitt's only winner of the Outland.
- Did not give up a sack his final two collegiate seasons.
- Was Pitt's "go-to" player on third-and-short situations, earning him the nickname "May Day."
- Helped lead Pitt to a four-year record of 39-8-1, including four bowl games and three Top 10 finishes.
- Was selected by the Washington Redskins in the first round of the 1981 NFL Draft and achieved fame as a standout member of the team's "Hogs" offensive line from 1981-90. Helped the Redskins to three Super Bowls (1982, 1983 and 1987), including world championships in '82 and '87. Finished his pro career with the San Diego Chargers (1991) and Arizona Cardinals (1992-93).
- Elected into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2005.

Bill Fralic

1981-84

- A three-time first team All-American, including unanimous status as a junior and senior.
- Became the first offensive lineman to twice finish in the top 10 of the Heisman Trophy balloting, placing sixth in 1984 and eighth in 1983.
- His collegiate career led to the creation of the "Pancake," a statistical barometer for each time Fralic put an opposing defensive lineman on his back.
- The second player taken overall in the 1985 NFL Draft, Fralic went on to an exceptional pro career from 1985-93, playing eight years with the Atlanta Falcons and his final season with the Detroit Lions. He was selected to the Pro Bowl four times.
- Was elected into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1998.

Mike Ditka

End

1958-60

89

- Was a unanimous All-America selection at end in 1960.
- Led Pitt in receiving three consecutive years and was also a standout linebacker and punter. He additionally played baseball and basketball at Pitt and was the intramural wrestling champion.

- In 1961 he was a first-round draft choice of the Chicago Bears and was a member of their 1963 NFL Championship team. He was also a member of the Dallas Cowboys when they won Super Bowl VI and earned All-Pro four times.
- Spent 11 seasons as the head coach of the Chicago Bears, leading them to victory in Super Bowl XX, and later coached the New Orleans Saints.
- Elected into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1986 and Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1988.

Hugh Green

Defensive End

1977-80

99

- A three-time first team All-American and won the 1980 Lombardi Award, Maxwell Award and the Walter Camp Award.
- Finished second in the 1980 Heisman Trophy balloting, an unprecedented finish for a purely defensive player.
- Was the first-ever defensive player to win the Walter Camp Award.
- Named to Pitt's All-Time Team after just his sophomore year.
- Twenty-eight years following his final collegiate season, remains Pitt's all-time sack leader with 49.
- Helped lead Pitt to a four-year record of 39-8-1, including four bowl games and three Top 10 finishes.
- First-round selection by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 1981 and played 11 years in the NFL.
- Elected into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1996.

BOWL HISTORY

Bobby Grier (wearing number 38) became the first African-American to ever play in the Sugar Bowl on Jan. 2, 1956.

ROSE BOWL • JAN. 2, 1928

Pasadena, Calif., The Rose Bowl

STANFORD	0	0	7	0	—	7
PITTSBURGH	0	0	6	0	—	6

Pitt's first bowl trip resembled a politician's whistle-stop tour—wherever Pitt was at lunchtime during its trek west, it practiced. The routine was simple: deboard the train around 11:15; explore the day's town until noon; lunch at 12; walk lunch off, then practice; reboard the train. So it was that Pitt practiced in Dodge City, Albuquerque and Winslow, Arizona, on the way to Pasadena. The game had a sentimental storyline: the coach against his mentor. Panther Head Coach John B. "Jock" Sutherland had played for Stanford Coach Glenn "Pop" Warner when the latter was at Pitt. Amidst all that, the game, although close, was controlled by Stanford. Pitt grabbed a 6-0 third-quarter lead when Jimmy Hagan scooped up a Cardinal fumble and ran 20 yards for a touchdown. The extra point was missed. Stanford, which made several marches deep into Pitt territory, finally scored on an unusual play. On fourth-and-goal at the two, Stanford quarterback Biff Hoffman completed a pass to Bob Sims, but it was short of the goal line. Sims was hit and fumbled, but Frank Wilton picked up the loose ball and carried it in to tie the game. Hoffman's extra point won it, 7-6. Pitt, a slight favorite entering the game, mustered very little offense in its first of four Rose Bowl games.

If vintage football films give you the impression that the game of the 20s and 30s was run, run, and run again, think again. USC's Trojans bombed Pitt with an all-out passing attack. The game started on a bright note for "Jock" Sutherland's team when Toby Uansa rushed 68 yards on Pitt's first play. Pitt failed to score, then the walls caved in. Gaius Shaver connected with Henry Edelson for a 55-yard touchdown. Later in the quarter, Shaver hit Ernest Pinckert for a 28-yard score, capitalizing on a Pitt fumble. Another fumble led to USC's third touchdown, a short run which opened the score to 19-0. Two Jesses set up the Trojans' next score when Jesse Mortensen and Jesse Hill teamed for a 51-yard pass play. Russell Saunders helped convert a USC interception into a 33-0 lead with his 13-yard scoring run. Pitt finally broke through in the third quarter when Uansa threw a 28-yard pass to William Wallinchus. Southern Cal sandwiched two more long touchdown passes (38 and 62 yards) around a Tom Parkinson-to-Paul Collins 36-yard TD pass for Pitt to arrive at the final score. In all, the Trojans scored the most points against Pitt since 1903. It would be Sutherland's second-worst margin of defeat in his 15 seasons at Pitt; the worst would come three years later, also against USC in the Rose Bowl.

Pitt's coach, John B. "Jock" Sutherland, would try a new play after two Rose Bowl losses, so he took the team to Tucson to practice for its first Rose Bowl win. Instead Sutherland suffered the worst loss in his Pitt career. It was the first time since 1928 that Pitt was shut out and actually lost the game; it had played four scoreless ties since a 6-0 loss to Carnegie Tech. With 83,000 in attendance, the Panthers stayed close until the fourth quarter before collapsing. USC's Homer Griffith threw, and later caught, a touchdown pass as the Trojans built a 14-0 lead through three quarters. After Irvine Warburton scored to make the score 21-0, Pitt fumbled the kickoff, and Warburton scored again shortly thereafter. A blocked punt set up the final touchdown. Several Panthers were singled out by the crowd with standing ovations: ends Ted Dailey and Joe Skladany, guard Charles Hartwig, and back Warren Heller, who rushed for 63 yards in the final game of his brilliant Pitt career.

"Jock" Sutherland was intent on winning the Rose Bowl in his fourth try. To that end, Pitt spent two weeks working out on the west coast, for Sutherland was not going to accept 0-4 in Rose Bowl play. His tactics worked, and captain Bobby LaRue led Pitt to a 21-0 victory. LaRue's running set up the first touchdown of the game, which, fittingly, he scored. LaRue's 50-yard run in the third quarter, which would have gone 75 yards for the touchdown if not for a diving tackle, set up Frank Patrick's touchdown. Pitt led, 14-0, after three quarters. The defense added a late touchdown, returning an interception. So elated was Sutherland that he substituted every player who made the trip, so each could forever relate the experience of playing in a Rose Bowl victory. After four tries, the coach had finally overcome one of the few obstacles in his remarkable career.

A controversial pass interference penalty against Pitt's Bobby Grier, the first black man ever to play in the Sugar Bowl, put Georgia Tech on the doorstep for the game's only touchdown. Pitt, under new Head Coach John Michelosen—the only man in Pitt history to play and coach in bowl games (he was a quarterback on the 1936 Rose Bowl team)—had several chances to tie the game but hit a wall of futility. Grier's penalty gave Tech the ball on the 1, from where Wade Mitchell snuck in for the score. A fumble killed a first-quarter drive, then quarterback Corny Salvaterra was stopped on a fourth-and-goal just before halftime. Pitt's Ray DiPasquale intercepted a pass to squelch a fourth quarter threat by Tech. In the final moments, Pitt made a furious attempt to tie the game. The Panthers, who were penalized twice on the last drive, were on Tech's 5-yard line when time ran out.

Coach John Michelosen's team had wanted a rematch with Georgia Tech, but the result was the same—a seven-point loss. Pitt outgained Tech by 106 yards, 313-207, but was plagued by turnovers. Georgia Tech converted an early interception into a touchdown and a 7-0 lead. Pitt was stopped on a goal-line stand at the start of the second quarter, and Tech increased its lead late in the quarter with a halfback-option TD pass. Pitt quarterback Corny Salvaterra hit Dick Bowen with a 36-yard scoring pass just before the half, and Pitt trailed, 14-7. Bowen's fumble on the second-half kickoff set up the clinching touchdown. Pitt pulled to within seven on Salvaterra's sneak, but could draw no closer.

A new era in Pitt football was ushered in with the Panthers' first bowl appearance in 17 years. Coach-of-the-Year Johnny Majors had revived a struggling program and Pitt was 6-4-1 entering this game. Freshman Tony Dorsett was a big part of the turnaround, rushing for 1,686 yards. Pitt struck first, with Dorsett scoring two plays after Tom Perko recovered Arizona State quarterback Danny White's fumble on the first play of the game. But the Sun Devils, playing on their own field, proved too tough. Woody Green scored four plays after Dorsett's touchdown to tie the game. Arizona State scored three touchdowns in 6:04 of the fourth quarter, and although Pitt blocked all three extra points, the game ended one-sided after being tied at halftime. Dorsett rushed for 100 yards, but Pitt turned the ball over seven times. Both quarterbacks, White and Pitt's Billy Daniels, threw three interceptions, but White completed 14-of-19 for 269 yards. Daniels was 7-20 for just 57 yards.

A player rushing for 100 yards is impressive. Two players on the same team is remarkable. Three is unheard of, but that is how Pitt knocked off Kansas. Elliott Walker (11 carries for 123 yards, 11.2 average) got the ball rolling with a 60-yard touchdown run in the first quarter. Tony Dorsett (27-142) scored two touchdowns in the second quarter. Pitt had nearly 300 rushing yards at the intermission. Quarterback Robert Haygood ran the veer offense to perfection, rushing for 101 yards (14 carries) when he wasn't busy pitching out to Dorsett. Haygood also connected with Gordon Jones for a touchdown after Walker scored his second of the game. Jones set up his own touchdown with a 63-yard kickoff return. With eight wins, Pitt had its best season since 1963. Dorsett rushed for 1,686 yards on the season, matching his 1973 total.

The many remarkable accomplishments Tony Dorsett achieved in his four years at Pitt were punctuated by his role in this win, one that gave Pitt its first national championship in 39 years. Dorsett, quarterback Matt Cavanaugh and a marauding defense just would not be denied in the first indoor Sugar Bowl game. Cavanaugh, named the game's MVP, scored from six yards out to give Pitt a 7-0 lead. The celebration of that touchdown became a Sports Illustrated cover that can be seen at several sites around Pitt's campus. The photo headline simply read: "PITT IS IT!" Gordon Jones turned a short pass into a 59-yard touchdown excursion in the second quarter. Dorsett's 10-yard score late in the half cemented the victory. He was far from through, however. After gaining 65 yards in the first half, the Heisman Trophy winner exploded in the second to finish with a Sugar Bowl record 202 yards rushing, including 67 on one run that set up one of Carson Long's two second-half field goals. The defense created six turnovers, and limited the Bulldogs to 181 yards. Pitt defenders actually caught more Georgia passes than did Georgia receivers (four interceptions, compared to three completions in 22 attempts). Vince Dooley, Georgia's head coach, said this about the 12-0 Panthers: "They proved today they are the best in the country. They have amazing balance; they are the best defensive team we've seen. I think that is obvious. They are also the best offensive team we've faced." Pitt coach Johnny Majors, who completed his four-year stint at Pitt with a 33-13-1 record (after a combined 13-29 mark in the previous four years) was named Coach-of-the-Year for the second time at Pitt.

Pitt set five Gator Bowl records for offensive proficiency in an astounding demolition of the highly regarded Clemson Tigers. Matt Cavanaugh completed 23-of-36 passes for 387 yards and four touchdowns as Pitt outgained Clemson, 566-268. Three scoring tosses went to fullback Elliott Walker, who joined Tony Dorsett as the second Pitt back ever to rush for 1,000 yards in a season. Gordon Jones scored the other TD on one of his 10 receptions for 163 yards. Cavanaugh threw for 211 yards and two touchdowns in the first half alone. Clemson's vaunted passing combination of Steve Fuller-to-Jerry Butler was rendered ineffective by a Pitt secondary which swooped in for four interceptions, two by senior safety Bob Jury. Cavanaugh, an All-American in 1977, missed part of the season after suffering a broken wrist against Notre Dame in the first game of the year. "I shudder to think what he could have done had he stayed healthy," said Panther Coach Jackie Sherrill, who finished his first year at Pitt with a 9-2-1 mark.

The Panthers saved their worst performance of the season for this bowl outing with North Carolina State. Primarily a running team in 1978, Pitt attempted to open it up on this night, throwing 48 passes. Four were intercepted, however. The Wolfpack, led by star running back Ted Brown, rolled up a 23-3 fourth quarter lead before Pitt quarterback Rick Trocano tried to bring the Panthers back. An 18-play drive featured four fourth-down conversions, the last of which resulted in a Freddie Jacobs touchdown. Pitt moved to State's 34-yard line with five minutes remaining, but an interception settled the issue. Trocano was intercepted twice more before the game ended, but he also led Pitt to the game's final touchdown. "Execution on our part was our biggest problem," Coach Jackie Sherrill said. "We didn't play well...and the turnovers hurt us." Pitt finished 8-4.

Pitt finished the 1979 season with a 10-game winning streak, built in part around the arm of freshman quarterback Dan Marino. The season finale came on Christmas Day, with the Panthers rounding out an 11-1 campaign with a 16-10 win over Arizona. The Wildcats, coached by former Pitt radio commentator Tony Mason, threatened often but did not score a touchdown until the game's waning moments. Junior cornerback Terry White intercepted two passes. One set up the second of three Mark Schubert field goals; the other allowed Pitt to run out the clock. Two of Schubert's kicks were from 46 yards out. Pitt's only touchdown came after a 12-play drive, with Marino hitting Benjie Pryor from 12 yards out. The last three plays of the drive: Marino to Mike Dombrowski for 34 yards, Marino to Ralph Still for 24 yards, and the touchdown.

Pitt's defense wanted this game badly. Its leader for four years, Hugh Green, finished second in the Heisman Trophy voting behind South Carolina's George Rogers. With the chance to avenge that result, Pitt smothered Gamecocks with a swarming defense and an efficient offense. Rick Trocano and Dan Marino split time at quarterback; each threw a touchdown pass and Trocano added a short TD run. Although Rogers gained 113 yards, his two fumbles were more of a factor in the game than his rushing output. Tom Flynn recovered Rogers' fumble on the first play of the game, leading to Trocano's score. Randy McMillan scored two touchdowns as Pitt rolled to a 37-3 lead. The defense was led by Rickey Jackson, who made 19 tackles (14 solos). Pitt finished the season 11-1.

One of the most dramatic finishes in Pitt football history gave Pitt its second Sugar Bowl win over Georgia. Pitt trailed, 20-17, with 42 seconds remaining. It faced a fourth-and-5 at the Bulldog 33. Coach Jackie Sherrill disdained the potential 50-yard field goal attempt. "With five minutes to go I said we were not here to tie, we were here to win," Sherrill said. Dan Marino wanted to throw a short pass to a running back to get the first down, but a Georgia blitz left tight end John Brown in single coverage down the middle. Marino was right on target for the touchdown, his third of the game. The Panther defense limited Herschel Walker to 84 yards on 25 carries.

The Panthers' season came to a dismal end as Pitt lost to Southern Methodist in the Mustangs' own backyard. Dan Marino, in his last game at Pitt, was plagued by dropped passes on the cold, rainy day. He completed 19-of-37 for 181 yards. Fumbles were the story of the first quarter. Joe McCall lost one at the SMU one-yard line, but Mustang QB Lance McIlhenny returned the favor with a fumble at the Pitt seven. Eric Schubert's missed field goal attempt left the game scoreless at the half. Marino completed five straight short passes to set up Schubert's 43-yard kick which gave Pitt its only points. SMU's "Pony Express" backfield (Eric Dickerson and Craig James) led an 80-yard drive, which McIlhenny capped off with a nine-yard run. Pitt's last chance ended when a Marino pass was tipped and intercepted in the end zone.

John Congemi completed a school-record 31 passes for 341 yards, but a late Ohio State touchdown pass spoiled Congemi's, and Pitt's, afternoon. Congemi's second-quarter touchdown pass to tight end Clint Wilson tied the score at 7-7, but the Buckeyes led, 14-7, entering the fourth quarter. Wilson fell on Joe McCall's fumble in the end zone to tie the score early in the fourth quarter. Ohio State's Keith Byars scored his second touchdown by returning the ensuing kickoff 99 yards. Congemi was six-for-six on Pitt's next touchdown drive, which culminated with an 11-yard pass to Dwight Collins. Congemi, who completed 19-of-27 in the second half, had his conversion pass broken up, and Pitt trailed, 21-20. A 17-play drive later in the quarter ended with Snuffy Everett's 37-yard field goal to put the Panthers on top. Quarterback Mike Tomczak led Ohio State back, ending an 89-yard drive with a 39-yard bomb to Thad Jemison, who scored with 39 seconds remaining. Head Coach Foge Fazio's Panthers drove to the Buckeye 24, but could get no further.

Despite late heroics from Larry Wanke, Pitt was grounded in this aerial circus, as Texas quarterback Brett Stafford and split end Tony Jones set Bluebonnet Bowl records. The New Year's Eve crowd was treated to an action-packed game from the start. Stafford connected with Jones for a 77-yard touchdown on the first play from scrimmage. Pitt retaliated quickly: Billy Owens returned the kickoff 45 yards, Billy Osborn hit Reggie Williams for 45 more yards on a trick play; then Craig Heyward tied the score with a four-yard burst. Six plays later, the Longhorns took the lead for good as Stafford hit Jones on a short pass that he broke for a 60-yard touchdown. Stafford finished the first quarter with 202 yards passing on the way to a 368-yard night. Jones set records for receiving yards and longest reception. Wanke replaced Darnell Dickerson early in the third quarter after Dickerson suffered a knee injury. Wanke completed 8-of-20 passes for 172 yards and three touchdowns, including two late in the fourth quarter that cut the Longhorns' lead to five. Heyward rushed for 136 yards, winning his personal battle with Texas star Eric Metcalf, who finished with 95 yards rushing. Heyward ended the season with 1,791 yards, the second-best in Pitt history. Pitt finished the year at 8-4, their most successful season since 1983.

TEXAS A&M	7	3	12	6	—	28
PITTSBURGH	7	10	7	7	—	31

Led by bowl MVP Alex Van Pelt's 354 yards passing, Pitt parlayed a John Hancock Bowl-record 530 yards in offense into a 31-28 come-from-behind victory over Texas A&M. It was a day of firsts for the Panthers. Paul Hackett, named head coach moments before kickoff, won his first game as a head coach. It also was Pitt's first bowl win since the Panthers' 24-20 Sugar Bowl victory over Georgia in 1982. Van Pelt, who completed 20 of 40 passes and threw for two touchdowns, rallied the Panthers from a 28-24 deficit, when he connected with Henry Tuten on a 44-yard touchdown strike with just 2:19 remaining in the game, giving Pitt a 31-28 lead. Tailback Curvin Richards rushed for 156 yards on 23 carries and scored the first points of the game with a 12-yard TD. Texas A&M countered with a nine-yard touchdown run by quarterback Lance Pavlas, tying the score at 7-7 to end the first quarter. With the score tied at 10 late in the first half, Van Pelt threw an eight-yard touchdown pass to Ronald Redmon, giving Pitt a 17-10 halftime lead. Flanker Olanda Truitt completed his freshman season in stellar fashion, catching four passes for 124 yards, including a key 59-yard reception that set up Redmon's score. Carnel Smith finished the game with 10 tackles and Barry Threats had a game-ending interception, which ended Texas A&M's final drive and secured the Panthers' victory. The Hancock Bowl win marked the end of another decade in Pitt football history and the dawn of the Hackett coaching era. The Panthers finished the 1989 season with an 8-3-1 record.

BOWL HISTORY

AXA/EQUITABLE LIBERTY BOWL • DEC. 31, 1997

Memphis, Tenn., Liberty Bowl

SO. MISS.	7	7	14	13	—	41
PITTSBURGH	0	7	0	0	—	7

Playing its first postseason game in eight seasons, Pittsburgh fell victim to an opportunistic Southern Mississippi defense and suffered a 41-7 defeat in the 1997 AXA/Equitable Liberty Bowl. It was the Panthers' first-ever appearance in the Liberty Bowl and their first bowl game since a 31-28 victory over Texas A&M in the 1989 John Hancock Bowl. Pittsburgh threatened early, driving to the Golden Eagles' 13 on its initial series, but failed to score any points. Southern Miss responded with a pair of touchdown drives for a 14-0 second-quarter lead. The Panther offense, held in check for most of the game, had its lone shining moment when quarterback Pete Gonzalez connected with Jake Hoffart on an 89-yard pass-and-run touchdown as Pittsburgh trailed 14-7 at halftime. Hoffart, who finished with five catches for 121 yards, set a Liberty Bowl record with his touchdown catch. The Panthers, however, would come no closer. USM's defense returned a fumble and two interceptions for touchdowns in the second half to roll to its first victory ever over Pittsburgh.

INSIGHT.COM BOWL • DEC. 28, 2000

Phoenix, Ariz., Bank One Ballpark

IOWA STATE	7	20	0	10	—	37
PITTSBURGH	7	0	13	9	—	29

Making its second postseason appearance under Walt Harris, Pittsburgh rolled up big offensive numbers but fell in a shootout to Iowa State, 37-29, in the Insight.com Bowl. The Panthers held statistical advantages in total offense (491 yards to 375), passing (347 to 308) and rushing (164 to 107). The Panthers struck on their very first possession of the game when John Turman hit a streaking Antonio Bryant for a 72-yard touchdown and 7-0 lead. The Cyclones, however, responded with 27 unanswered points, including 20 in the second period. Pittsburgh pulled within 27-14 when Rod Rutherford snuck in from two yards out. Bryant then made a brilliant diving catch for a 44-yard touchdown and the Panthers trailed 27-20 with 2:05 left in the third. The Panthers' momentum was slowed when Iowa State's JaMain Billups returned a punt 72 yards for a score early in the fourth. Kevan Barlow, who finished with 114 rushing yards, bulled in from the three to make it 34-29 at the 9:45 mark. But the Panthers could draw no closer. The contest marked the first football game ever played in Bank One Ballpark, home of Major League Baseball's Arizona Diamondbacks.

VISIT FLORIDA TANGERINE BOWL • DEC. 20, 2001

Orlando, Fla., Florida Citrus Bowl

NC STATE	3	7	0	9	—	19
PITTSBURGH	3	21	3	7	—	34

Pittsburgh captured its first bowl victory since 1989 with a 34-19 win over NC State in the Visit Florida Tangerine Bowl. The victory gave the Panthers their strongest close to a season since 1980 by winning their final six games.

Hobbled by an ankle injury, Antonio Bryant went on to earn Most Valuable Player honors after catching seven passes for 101 yards and two touchdowns. David Priestley put up MVP-like statistics himself, completing 18-of-32 passes for 271 yards and the two scoring strikes to Bryant. The duo propelled the Panthers to a 24-10 halftime lead. The Pittsburgh defense held strong and limited Wolfpack quarterback Philip Rivers to just 189 yards through the air and sacked him four times. NC State closed to 27-19 in the fourth quarter but blitzing Lewis Moore quelled the threat when he sacked Rivers and forced a fumble. Tyre Young picked it up and ran 16 yards untouched for the clinching TD. Moore, who finished with seven tackles (all solo), including two for losses, was named Pittsburgh's Defensive MVP.

INSIGHT BOWL • DEC. 26, 2002

Phoenix, Ariz., Bank One Ballpark

PITTSBURGH	7	3	14	14	—	38
OREGON STATE	7	3	3	0	—	13

Pittsburgh achieved its finest season in two decades with a 38-13 triumph over Oregon State in the Insight Bowl. The Panthers finished 9-4, their winningest season since 1982, and secured a spot in the final national polls for the first time since 1989. The win marked the Panthers' second consecutive postseason victory. A stifling defensive effort, efficient offense as well as a special teams gem keyed the result. Tied at 10 at halftime, OSU quarterback Derek Anderson was intercepted by Tez Morris, who returned the ball 36 yards to the Beavers' 23 early in the third quarter. Rod Rutherford completed a 22-yard pass to Larry Fitzgerald to the one before rushing up the middle for a 17-10 lead just three minutes into the second half. The Panthers broke open the contest later in the third when Shawn Robinson fielded a punt at the Panthers' 34, ran wide to the right and sprinted down the sideline for a 66-yard touchdown. It was the first punt return for a TD in Pittsburgh's bowl history. Pittsburgh iced the game with a 44-yard touchdown drive climaxed by Brandon Miree's seven-yard burst. Miree, who earned the game's Offensive MVP honor, finished with 113 yards rushing on 20 carries (5.7 avg.). In contrast, OSU tailback Steven Jackson — who entered the game as the nation's fifth-leading rusher — was held to a season-low 34 yards.

CONTINENTAL TIRE BOWL • DEC. 27, 2003

Charlotte, N.C., Ericsson Stadium

PITTSBURGH	0	13	3	0	—	16
VIRGINIA	7	10	3	3	—	23

A skillful and methodical opening drive that moved 69 yards to the Virginia one-yard line ultimately failed to produce any points, setting the tone in Pittsburgh's 23-16 loss in the Continental Tire Bowl. Virginia scored the game's first touchdown four plays later and went on to win its second consecutive Continental Tire Bowl. Missed opportunities were the theme for Pitt, which finished 8-5 for the season, with a missed extra point, missed field goal, an interception and a lost fumble on a potential game-tying drive. Heisman Trophy runner-up Larry Fitzgerald saw his NCAA record touchdown streak end at 18 games, but the All-American still led the Panthers with five catches for 77 yards. Brandon Miree rushed for 110 yards and added four receptions, including one for a 17-yard touchdown. The scoring pass from Rod Rutherford was his 37th of the season, tying Dan Marino's school record set in 1981.

TOSTITOS FIESTA BOWL • JAN. 1, 2005

Tempe, Ariz., Sun Devil Stadium

PITTSBURGH	0	0	7	0	—	7
UTAH	7	7	21	0	—	35

Making its first appearance in the Fiesta Bowl since the 1983 season, Pitt fell victim to a lethal Utah passing game and equally potent pass rush in a 35-7 defeat. Tyler Palko was sacked a Fiesta Bowl-record nine times and the Panthers' offense was grounded most of the evening. The Utes finished the 2004 season with a 12-0 record and ranked as high as fourth in the final polls. Pitt finished with an 8-4 mark and ranked No. 25. Utah scored touchdowns on five of its first seven possessions, including all three in the third quarter. Pitt advanced into Utah territory three times in the first half but four sacks and a blocked field goal kept the Panthers off the scoreboard. The Panthers' lone score came on a beautiful over-the-shoulder grab by Greg Lee that went for a 31-yard touchdown with 4:28 left in the third quarter. Lee had seven receptions for 93 yards, while fellow wideout Joe DeSardo had nine catches for 109 yards.

FOOTBALL LETTERMEN

The following list was compiled from various sources during the summer of 1981, and has been updated and corrected annually since then. Although all cautions were taken to avoid errors, we do realize that names were most likely omitted due to the immensity of the task. If you have additions, or find errors in the list, please contact the Media Relations Office. Active players are in bold.

* In the 1960s, the AFL established the same draft format as the NFL by drafting in an inverse order of finish. Each league had its own draft, allowing for athletes to be drafted by the AFL and the NFL.

 Jack Durishan was drafted in 1943 by Pittsburgh. He served in the armed forces and after returning was drafted again in 1947 by the New York Yankees.

 Steve Jastrzembski was drafted by Boston (AFL) in 1962 and Baltimore (NFL) in 1961.

PITT

THE UNIVERSITY

When Mark Nordenberg and his family – then consisting of his wife, his daughter and his dog – drove into Pittsburgh in a rental truck in the summer of 1977, they never imagined that their stay would become such an extended one. However, what began as a temporary nine-month teaching stint has become a far more permanent, and very special, relationship. Over the course of the next three decades, the young law professor quickly advanced through the faculty ranks – from visiting assistant professor to Distinguished Service Professor, and assumed a succession of key leadership positions – Dean of the School of Law, Interim Provost and Chancellor of the University.

This past summer marked the end of Professor Nordenberg's 13th year of service as Chancellor. Whatever the superstitious might have predicted, nothing about that 13th year was unlucky for Pitt. Instead, this was the 13th consecutive year that was markedly better than the one that had preceded it, a remarkable record of sustained institutional success for our University. It was, in short, another period of significant, and often spectacular, progress – a real credit, as the Chancellor likes to say, to the talented and committed people of Pitt.

In terms of overall performance, this was the second consecutive year in which Pitt was ranked in the very top cluster of America's public research universities in the annual assessment of The Top American Research Universities. That study, prepared by the Center for Measuring University Performance, is tied to objective measures spanning key areas of performance – faculty awards, quality undergraduates, strength of graduate and post-graduate programs, research impact and private support. Only seven universities were included in the Center's very top cluster – Berkeley, Illinois, Michigan, North Carolina, Pitt, UCLA and Wisconsin.

The University also advanced on two key measures of research strength. In terms of National Institutes of Health grants attracted by members of our faculty, we moved into sixth place nationally. The NIH top 10 consists of Harvard, Johns Hopkins, Penn, the University of California at San Francisco, the University of Washington, Pitt, UCLA, Duke, Michigan and Washington University in St. Louis. In terms of total federal science and engineering research and development grants won by our faculty, Pitt now ranks 11th nationally – sitting just outside a very strong top 10 that consists of Johns Hopkins, Washington, Penn, UCLA, Michigan, Stanford, the University of California at San Francisco, Duke, Columbia and Harvard.

In terms of student achievement, Pitt undergraduates continued to win national honors, adding to a list of awards that, just since 1995, includes two Rhodes Scholarships, six Marshall Scholarships, five Truman Scholarships, four Udall Scholarships, one Churchill Scholarship, 31 Goldwater Scholarships, and three Mellon Humanities Fellows. Of course, tens of thousands of other Pitt students crafted more private, but equally important, records of achievement, as they continued to build the educational foundations from which they will pursue their own life dreams. And Pitt students visibly demonstrated their fond feelings about their University by sponsoring an "I Love Pitt Day."

Faculty members were elected to such prestigious organizations as the Institute of Medicine, the National Academy of Education, the American Association for the Advancement of Science, and the American Academy of Arts and Sciences. Clearly demonstrating that our pipeline of talent is strong, junior faculty members had an unprecedented year, receiving such high honors as a Presidential Early Career Award for Science and Engineering, two Howard Hughes Medical Foundation Early Career Physician Scientist Awards, five National Science Foundation Early Career Development Awards, and a Beckman Young Investigator's Award.

The University celebrated a truly transformational event when University Trustee John Swanson made his historic $41.3 million gift to support what now has been named the Swanson School of Engineering in his honor. As Chancellor Nordenberg noted at the time, it is highly unusual for one of a university's most distinguished graduates – the winner of the Fritz Medal, engineering's highest honor, and the founder of ANSYS, a major Pittsburgh area employer and a global pioneer in the application of software to product design and testing – to also become its most generous donor. Dr. Swanson's gift helped propel Pitt past the $1.25 billion mark in its $2 billion capital campaign. Attracting such support is critical at a time when government support for public higher education is lagging. The Commonwealth appropriation, which once represented nearly one-third of Pitt's annual operating budget, now amounts to just 11 percent of that budget, for example.

In athletics, the past year brought many memorable performances. Among them, our football Panthers derailed the national-championship-bound "Mountaineer Express." Our men's basketball team captured the Big East Tournament Championship. Our women's basketball team reached the NCAA's Sweet Sixteen for the first time ever. And wrestler Keith Gavin completed a remarkable, 27-win, undefeated season by claiming an NCAA championship.

The past year also was a memorable one for Chancellor Nordenberg in two other ways. After many months of careful study, a Citizens' Committee that he had chaired recommended that the governments of Allegheny County and the City of Pittsburgh be consolidated – a recommendation that was quickly embraced by Allegheny County Chief Executive Dan Onorato and City of Pittsburgh Mayor Luke Ravenstahl. And Pitt students named their new social and recreational center in the William Pitt Union in the Chancellor's honor – which he has gratefully described as a reflection of the student-oriented commitment of Pitt's entire leadership team.

Long respected by his students, Chancellor Nordenberg was the first recipient of the Law School's Excellence-in-Teaching Award and was one of the first recipients of the Chancellor's Distinguished Teaching Award. His academic specialty is civil litigation, and he has served as a member of both the U.S. Supreme Court's Advisory Committee on Civil Rules and the Pennsylvania Supreme Court's Civil Procedural Rules Committee. He is an active civic leader and has chaired efforts focused on such matters as the challenges facing the state's urban schools, the work force development needs of the region, and issues of governance in the city's public schools. He also has led a number of technology-based economic development initiatives, serves on the executive committee of the Allegheny Conference on Community Development and is a Director of Bank of New York Mellon.

Among his many honors, Chancellor Nordenberg has been named Pittsburgh's Person of the Year by both Vectors Pittsburgh and Pittsburgh magazine. To celebrate his first decade in office, University trustees, alumni leaders and other special friends contributed $2.5 million to endow a faculty chair in his name.

Chancellor Nordenberg served as Chair of the Big East Conference during its recent period of reorganization. He currently is a member of the conference Executive Committee, is its representative to the Bowl Championship Series presidential oversight committee, and is co-chairing its search for a new commissioner. He also is a past member of the board and executive committee of the NCAA.

Born in Duluth, Minnesota, Chancellor Nordenberg first moved to this region as a high school senior, when his father was transferred to Pittsburgh by U.S. Steel. He is an honors graduate of North Allegheny High School, Thiel College, and the University of Wisconsin Law School. He has been married for 37 years to Nikki Pirillo Nordenberg, who earned her Ph.D. at Pitt. The Nordenbergs have three adult children – Erin, Carl and Michael. All are graduates of the University's Falk School. Erin also earned a master's degree from Pitt's School of Information Sciences.

ATHLETIC DIRECTOR STEVE PEDERSON

The setting couldn't have been more Pittsburgh.

On a sun-splashed summer afternoon, Steve Pederson walked briskly down Smallman Street in the city's historic Strip District. His destination was the Heinz History Center, which was in the midst of commemorating Pittsburgh's 250th birthday.

This particular occasion was a celebration of Pittsburgh's famed sports heritage. As a large video wall replayed the Pirates' 1979 World Series triumph, Pederson strode through the lobby to a live television broadcast that featured Steel City sports heroes past and present.

Sitting down in front of a swelling audience in the makeshift studio, Pederson waxed nostalgic about Pitt's illustrious sports history. He also made it a point to glow optimistically about the Panthers' future.

When his interview was over, Pederson made sure he shook every hand in the audience. He even obliged when asked to sign the PITT T-shirt a fan was wearing.

Whether it's thanking a Panther fan or working to make a new one, Pitt's athletic director will always seize the opportunity with equal enthusiasm.

Born and bred in America's heartland, Pederson and his family have come to call Pittsburgh, and Pitt, home. His return to the university on November 30, 2007, gave the Pitt Athletic Department a shot of adrenaline that continues to be felt nearly a year later. His mantra of "Only Big Dreams" resonates with each student-athlete and staffer — the Panthers will work hard and aim high in every endeavor.

Those were the qualities that led University of Pittsburgh chancellor Mark Nordenberg to lure Pederson back as athletic director. Nordenberg originally tapped Pederson to head Pitt's athletic department in October 1996. During the next six years, the Panthers' athletic fortunes elevated dramatically on and off the field, prompting a Pittsburgh newspaper to dub Pitt "Comeback U."

Pederson departed Pitt in December 2002 to become athletic director at his alma mater, the University of Nebraska. He returned to Pittsburgh nearly 11 years to the day of his initial Pitt appointment by Nordenberg.

"For six exciting years, Steve Pederson led the University of Pittsburgh through a period of unprecedented progress in intercollegiate athletics," Chancellor Nordenberg said. "For many, the most visible development was the stunning transformation of our athletic facilities. But this also was a period in which our teams competed at dramatically higher levels, national attention was re-ignited, fan interest and attendance soared, programs for the overall development of our student-athletes were strengthened, and uncompromising standards of institutional integrity were maintained. In my judgment, and this assessment is shared by countless others, Steve Pederson is one of this country's most talented and accomplished athletic directors, and I am very pleased that he is returning to Pitt."

"I am grateful to Chancellor Nordenberg for the opportunity to again be part of this great university, city and region," Pederson said. "Leaving here six years ago was the hardest professional decision of my life. Coming back was the easiest. As great as the past has been at Pitt, the future is even brighter."

"I get up every morning so excited to come to work at Pitt. In some ways I feel like a part of me was always here, and my return has ignited a passion that is even greater than before. I am the luckiest man in the world to be at Pitt and have my family back in Pittsburgh. I feel very blessed to be back working for this great university."

During his initial Pitt tenure, Pederson hired six Big East Conference Coach-of-the-Year honorees (football, men's and women's basketball, baseball, track and field and volleyball), an unprecedented achievement by a Big East athletic director.

In 1999 he charged an unknown coach from Northern Arizona University with the task of resurrecting the Panthers' struggling men's basketball program. That coach, Ben Howland, would build Pitt into a Big East power and was named the consensus National Coach of the Year in 2002.

Pitt, which had not been to the NCAA Tournament in nine years, advanced to the "Sweet 16" in 2002 after posting a school-record 29 victories. The following season, Pitt would reach No. 2 in the polls, capture its first Big East Tournament championship and again advance to the NCAA regional semifinals. Since that time, Pitt basketball has become one of the nation's most consistent winners, advancing to seven consecutive NCAA Tournaments from 2002-2008.

Current Pitt basketball coach Jamie Dixon recalled how instrumental Pederson was in helping to lure him to Pittsburgh to serve with Howland nine years ago.

"Steve was the person who originally convinced me to come to the University of Pittsburgh back in 1999," Dixon said. "He has continued to be a tremendous friend and a person I have regularly sought out for advice and direction over the years. I am incredibly excited that Steve and his wife Tami are returning to our university. Everyone in our department is going to benefit from his leadership."

Pitt football was revitalized under Pederson's watch. Upon his arrival, the Panthers were coming off seven consecutive seasons without a bowl. By the end of his tenure, Pitt earned four bowl berths in six years, including back-to-back postseason wins in 2001 and 2002. The '02 team finished 9-4, the program's best mark in 20 years, and ranked No. 18 in the final polls.

One of the stars of that 2002 team was receiver Larry Fitzgerald, who would become a unanimous All-American and now is an All-Pro performer for the Arizona Cardinals.

"When I decided to go to Pitt, it was for many reasons — a great school, a great football tradition and great people," Fitzgerald said. "Steve Pederson was one of those great people who made me feel like Pitt was the place for me. I couldn't be happier that Steve is back and I know Pitt will benefit greatly from his leadership."

While Pederson was instrumental in helping to revive Pitt football's present, he was very attentive to honoring the program's historic past. One of his first major steps as athletic director was to retire the jerseys of all-time Pitt greats Mike Ditka, Marshall Goldberg and Joe Schmidt. Pederson later initiated the Pitt jersey retirement of Mark May, the Panthers' lone Outland Trophy winner.

Pitt enjoyed tremendous achievements in attendance under Pederson. In NCAA Division I men's basketball, Pitt ranked among the nation's top five schools in attendance increase for two consecutive years (2001-02 and 2002-03). The 2002-03 basketball season — the inaugural campaign in the 12,508-seat Petersen Events Center — was sold out. Capitalizing on the exciting and unanticipated success of the 2001-02 basketball team, Pitt held a highly successful "select your seat" campaign for prospective season-ticket holders that simultaneously achieved customer satisfaction as well as enhanced fundraising.

In football, Pederson formed a marketing and ticket pricing plan that resulted in record attendance for the 2003 season. Season tickets were sold out for the '03 campaign as the Panthers averaged an all-time record 59,197 fans for their home season, surpassing the previous mark of 54,818 set in 1982.

PITT

Steve Pederson speaks to the media after Pitt Chancellor Mark A. Nordenberg announced that Pederson was returning as Pitt's athletic director.

Pitt gets right, best man

To Nordenberg's credit, he brings Pederson back into the Panthers' fold

Pederson's tenure witnessed a major strengthening of Pitt's athletic infrastructure. With Chancellor Nordenberg, he helped shape the vision of the Petersen Events Center, the state-of-the-art convocation center that dramatically revolutionized Pitt's campus upon its opening in 2002. The Events Center is widely considered one of the finest college basketball venues in the country and has also been a major asset for student life, providing outstanding recreational facilities and a fitting place for graduation ceremonies.

Pederson was at the forefront of the football program's move into the UPMC Sports Performance Complex, which included the forging of a unique relationship between UPMC, a professional sports franchise and college athletic program. He personally oversaw the design and layout of the Panthers' Duratz Athletic Complex, which houses Pitt's football offices and training areas, and has been described as the finest facility for a college football program in the country.

Pitt football gained a sparkling new home in Heinz Field under Pederson's watch in 2001. The Panthers gained a prominent presence at the new stadium with their logos on the seating, gates and signage. Pederson additionally initiated the renaming of Martindale Street to "Tony Dorsett Drive" to further enhance Pitt's identity on the North Shore.

"Steve Pederson made many important contributions during his first tenure as Pitt's athletic director from which the university is still seeing the benefits today," said Pittsburgh Steelers chairman Dan Rooney. "He played an integral role in the development of Heinz Field and the UPMC Sports Performance Complex where both Pitt and the Steelers run their football operations. His return to Pittsburgh should be cause for a lot of optimism for the future of Pitt's athletic program."

Fitzgerald Field House underwent a major renovation in 1998-99, providing Pitt's Olympic sports programs with new locker and training facilities. Trees Field also underwent major upgrades to accommodate both baseball and Pitt's new softball program.

During his five years at Nebraska, Pederson was also at the forefront of significant facilities construction, including a $51 million expansion to Memorial Stadium. The project resulted in new football facilities as well as new strength, sports medicine and indoor facilities for baseball, softball, soccer and sand volleyball. Additionally, the women's volleyball, gymnastics and rifle teams received a new office complex. Athletics fundraising doubled over his final four years, going from $9 million annually in 2003 to $16 million his final year.

Nebraska achieved at exceptional levels athletically and academically during his tenure. In 2006-07, the Cornhuskers won the national championship in women's volleyball, while the football team won the 2006 Big 12 North title and advanced to its first New Year's Day bowl game since 2001. Overall, 15 Nebraska teams earned NCAA invitations. Academically, Nebraska earned a school-record 94% graduation rate, the highest in the Big 12 last year, while Cornhusker student-athletes achieved a combined 3.0 grade-point average during the 2007 spring semester.

Pederson and his wife Tami have three children: Mark, Kari and Kristin.

DR. FREDDIE FU

Freddie Fu, M.D., has been the head team physician and orthopaedic surgeon for the Pitt athletic department since 1986, and the David Silver Professor and chairman of the Department of Orthopaedic Surgery at the Pitt School of Medicine since 1997.

Dr. Fu is known worldwide for his pioneering surgical techniques to treat sports-related injuries to the knee and shoulder and for his extensive scientific and clinical research in the biomechanics of such injuries. He is lauded especially for his scientific research and clinical expertise in treating the commonly injured anterior cruciate ligament (ACL), the main stabilizing ligament of the knee. Because of his reputation, Dr. Fu attracts both athletic and non-athletic patients from all over the globe, and is frequently sought after as an expert by top national and international media covering sports, medicine and science.

Dr. Fu sees patients in his clinic at the UPMC Center for Sports Medicine, one of the world's largest, most comprehensive facilities of its kind, located within the UPMC Sports Performance Complex. Partly designed by Dr. Fu, the complex also houses the indoor and outdoor training facilities of the Pitt Panthers and the Pittsburgh Steelers.

Christopher Harner, M.D., co-head team physician and orthopaedic surgeon for the Pitt Panthers football team, is the Blue Cross of Western Pennsylvania Professor of orthopaedic surgery at the Pitt School of Medicine. He's also chief of the division of sports medicine at UPMC, medical director and director of education at the UPMC Center for Sports Medicine, where he also sees athletic and non-athletic patients in his clinic.

Dr. Harner specializes in the clinical research and surgical treatment of sports-related injuries, especially those to the knee ligaments and cartilage. He was among the first surgeons in the country to perform knee meniscus transplants in the early 1990s. (The meniscus is the crescent-shaped cushion inside the knee joint commonly damaged along with ligament injuries.) Dr. Harner's extensive clinical, scientific and academic leadership has been recognized through numerous international awards and grants.

DR. DAVID STONE

David Stone, M.D., is the associate team physician for Pitt Panthers football and an assistant team physician for the Pitt athletic department. A fellowship-trained primary care sports medicine physician, Dr. Stone specializes in diagnosing and treating all types of athletic injuries and illnesses and is in many cases the first physician Pitt athletes see before a determination is made on the course of action to treat an injury or manage a potential injury.

Dr. Stone sees athletic and non-athletic patients in his clinic at the UPMC Center for Sports Medicine. He is an assistant professor in the Department of Orthopaedic Surgery at the Pitt School of Medicine.

Vonda Wright, M.D., is an assistant team physician and orthopaedic surgeon for the Pitt Panthers football team. One of few women in her field, along with Pitt's Dr. Robin West, she is assistant professor of orthopaedic surgery at the Pitt School of Medicine.

In addition to her work with young athletes, Dr. Wright has a special clinical and research interest in masters athletes (over age 40) and how physical aptitude affects mobility, independence and other aspects of general health as people age. She is the director of the Performance and Research Initiative for Masters Athletes (PRIMA), the first program of its kind in a medical setting. She sees patients in her clinics at the UPMC Center for Sports Medicine and UPMC Shadyside.

Dr. Wright is frequently quoted by local and national media as an expert in sports medicine, orthopaedic and healthy aging issues in active older adults.

DR. ROBIN WEST

Robin West, M.D., is an assistant team physician and orthopaedic surgeon for the Pitt Panthers football team. One of few women in her field, along with Pitt's Dr. Vonda Wright, she is assistant professor of orthopaedic surgery at the Pitt School of Medicine.

Dr. West is also the head team physician for the Pitt men's basketball team, a consultant to the medical team for the Pittsburgh Steelers and member of the NFL Team Physicians Society. A specialist in treating all types of musculoskeletal athletic injuries, Dr. West is especially interested in researching the biomechanics of knee ligament injuries, aimed at improving prevention and treatment methods. Dr. West sees athletic and non-athletic patients in her clinics at the UPMC Center for Sports Medicine and UPMC South Hills in Bethel Park.

Mark Rodosky, M.D., is an assistant team physician for the Pitt Panthers football team, specializing in the treatment and rehabilitation of shoulder and elbow injuries. He is the chief of the division of shoulder and elbow surgery at UPMC, and an assistant professor of orthopaedic surgery at the Pitt School of Medicine.

Dr. Rodosky also sees athletic and non-athletic patients in his clinic at the UPMC Center for Sports Medicine.

PITT PANTHERS FOOTBALL/ UPMC SPORTS MEDICINE TEAM

More than 500 University of Pittsburgh student-athletes receive medical care provided by the University's athletic training program.

The University of Pittsburgh has a proud tradition of athletic training education. The undergraduate program is accredited by the National Athletic Trainers Association (NATA). Pittsburgh also provides graduate education at the master's and doctoral level.

Established in 1975, the athletic training program prepares students for a career in the multidisciplinary field of sports medicine. Upon completion of the athletic training education program, the student is eligible for the NATA administered certification examination.

Pittsburgh athletes receive treatment in two athletic training rooms. Each sport has a full-time certified athletic trainer or certified graduate assistant and student athletic trainers assigned to provide medical coverage during all practices and games. The staff is dedicated to providing all aspects of prevention, evaluation, management and rehabilitation of injuries and illnesses.

The sports medicine staff also runs a sports medicine clinic at the UPMC Sports Performance Complex for all athletes to be evaluated by one of the sports medicine physicians. The South Side structure, which includes the Center for Sports Medicine, an indoor practice facility, four grass practice fields, and the Sports Performance Complex combines the resources of a major academic and clinical system with professional and collegiate sport team programs. This clinic provides the athletes with an opportunity to be seen by specialists as well as providing the student athletic trainer with an outstanding learning environment.

The UPMC clinic for Pitt athletes is led by Dr. Freddie Fu, Pitt head team physician, and Dr. Christopher Harner, co-head team physician. Other clinic physicians are: Dr. David Stone, associate team physician, and assistant team physicians Drs. Vonda Wright, Robin West and Mark Rodosky; Dr. Tanya Hagen; and sports medicine fellow Dr. Eric Kropf.

The world-renowned UPMC Sports Medicine Concussion Program is also available to Pitt athletes. The program is led by neuropsychologists Mark Lovell and Michael Collins, assisted by neurosurgeon Dr. Dade Lundsford.

In addition, a comprehensive staff of consulting specialists from throughout UPMC are part of the sports medicine team caring for all Pitt athletes.

OBTAINING MEDIA CREDENTIALS

Credentials for Pitt home games are issued to working media only and should be requested as early as possible due to space limitations and demand. All credential requests should be made online at www.sportssystems.com/pitt.

Media organizations covering Pitt and the visiting school on a regular basis will receive top priority. All other credentials for print media will be issued on the basis of circulation. Only radio stations with a full-time sports director conducting a daily sports show or members of the Pittsburgh ISP Sports Network will be considered for credentials.

GAME DAY MEDIA ENTRANCE

Press members must enter Heinz Field with their credentials through the designated entrance on the west side of the stadium, off Allegheny Avenue. The media entrance is just past Gate A, directly across from the Carnegie Science Center. After checking in with security, take the elevator up to the fourth floor for access to the press box.

GAME DAY MEDIA WILL CALL

Credentials that cannot be mailed may be obtained on game day at media will call, located at the media entrance on the west side of the stadium off Allegheny Avenue. Media will call opens two hours before kickoff. A photo ID must be shown to receive credentials.

GAME DAY TELEPHONES/WIRELESS SERVICE

The media relations office supplies an adequate number of telephones in the press box for general use by visiting writers. Credential requests should indicate interest in the use of these phones. Personal phone lines at assigned seats can be ordered by contacting the media relations office and obtaining a phone line request form. Orders must be placed at least four days prior to game day. Wireless Internet service is available to media members in the Heinz Field press box.

PHOTOGRAPHY ROOM

There is a photo room easily accessible from the field for covering photographers. Enter the tunnel located closest to the Pitt sideline in the closed (north) end of the stadium.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

The postgame press conference for Pitt home games will be held in the media compound, located conveniently off the administrative offices lobby by the press box elevator. Coach Dave Wannstedt and select Pitt players will attend the press conference. Pitt's locker room is closed to the media and the public. Opponent interviews will be held in a room connected to the visitor's locker room.

WEEKLY PRESS CONFERENCE

Coach Wannstedt will conduct his weekly press conferences Mondays, beginning at noon. The conferences will be held at the UPMC Sports Performance Complex. When obliged by the upcoming opponent, a 10-minute telephone hookup with the opposing coach will take place before the press conference. Transcripts as well as audio/video archives of Coach Wannstedt's press conferences are available on www.PittsburghPanthers.com.

BIG EAST FOOTBALL TELECONFERENCE

Coach Wannstedt will be available for interviews via a Big East Football Teleconference every Monday from 11:20 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. Contact the conference media relations office at (401) 453-0660 for the dial-in number and weekly replays.

PRACTICE COVERAGE

The initial 30 minutes of Pitt football practice, Monday through Thursday, are open to the media for observation. Photographers are also free to shoot practice during this time. The duration of the workout is closed. Media members should contact E.J. Borghetti in advance for practice times and proper clearance. All practices will be held at the UPMC Sports Performance Complex.

WEEKLY INTERVIEWS

All interviews must be arranged through the media relations office at least 24 hours in advance. Please note the following interview opportunities:

COACH WANNSTEDT PRACTICE PRESS BRIEFINGS

Coach Wannstedt will hold a press briefing on the field before each practice on weekdays. Consult the media relations office for exact times.

PLAYER AND ASSISTANT COACH INTERVIEWS

Player and assistant coach interviews will be held before practice at a designated time. Consult the media relations office for a weekly schedule. The deadline for player interviews during game weeks is Thursday at noon. The media relations office will not release player telephone numbers.

PITT

Color analyst Bill Fralic (left) and play-by-play man Bill Hillgrove will call all the radio action for Pitt football this year.

PITTSBURGH ISP SPORTS NETWORK

The University of Pittsburgh and its multi-media rights holder, ISP Sports, provide the Panthers with thoroughly comprehensive radio coverage. Pitt football is broadcast on the Pittsburgh ISP Sports Network. Game broadcasts air over a loyal network of stations, including flagships 94.5 WWSW (WWSW-FM) and Fox Sports Radio 970 (WBGG-AM). Broadcasts include:

- A two-hour football pregame show.
- "Panther Hotline," an hour-long call-in show following postgame coverage.
- A weekly Dave Wannstedt Show on Fox Sports Radio 970, airing live from the Pittsburgh Steak Company (1924 East Carson Street), on Wednesdays from 7-8 p.m. Coach Wannstedt previews the upcoming game and takes questions from callers listening on many of the same Pittsburgh ISP Sports Network affiliates that carry Pitt game broadcasts.

For the 35th consecutive year, Bill Hillgrove will be the "Voice of the Panthers." Hillgrove's accurate and descriptive style paints the picture for Pitt fans listening to the network. Hillgrove has a long association with the Panthers and Pittsburgh sports scene. Prior to taking over the play-by-play duties, Hillgrove served as the Panthers' color analyst from 1970-73. He has also served as the play-by-play man for Pitt basketball broadcasts since 1969.

A popular and well-known Pittsburgh sports personality, Hillgrove has long been a Panther ambassador of good will. He is a 1962 graduate of Duquesne and has also been the Pittsburgh Steelers' play-by-play announcer since 1995.

Hillgrove was named the 2007 recipient of the prestigious Chris Schenkel Award for excellence in college football broadcasting.

Bill Fralic, one of college football's greatest offensive linemen during his Pitt playing career from 1981-84, enters his fifth year as color analyst. Fralic was a three-time first team All-American, earning unanimous status his final two seasons. He became the first offensive lineman to twice finish in the top 10 of the Heisman Trophy balloting, placing sixth in 1984 and eighth in 1983.

The second player taken overall in the 1985 NFL Draft, Fralic went on to an exceptional pro career from 1985-93, playing eight years with the Atlanta Falcons and his final season with the Detroit Lions. He was selected to the Pro Bowl four times.

SIRIUS
SATELLITE RADIO

AT FSN PITTSBURGH, PANTHER FANS COME FIRST.

The region's leader in all-sports programming, FSN Pittsburgh will provide blanket coverage of Pitt football this season, from the first whistle of training camp through the final game.

Every weekly Dave Wannstedt press conference will be shown on FSN Pittsburgh, airing Tuesdays at 1 p.m.

New for this season will be a special Pitt feature each week on "Savran on SportsBeat," the iconic Pittsburgh sports show hosted by Stan Savran. An array of Pitt football guests will join Savran each week in FSN's North Shore studios, located mere steps away from Heinz Field, for analysis and insights. The show will also have regular entertaining Panther features.

The segment will re-air later that evening on "Savran Late Night" (10 p.m. non-event nights).

Savran has been part of the Pittsburgh sports scene for more than three decades. A member of the Western Pennsylvania Sports Hall of Fame, he made his Steel City broadcasting debut in 1976, the same year Pitt captured college football's national championship with a 12-0 record.
