Arizona Talking Book Library is proud to present
"Conversations with Authors."

Interviews with local authors whose books have been recorded in the Arizona Talking Book Library's studios are on YouTube.

The insights the authors provide, and the real-life events behind their stories, are fascinating and valuable to all who tune in to the "Arizona Talking Book Library Conversations with Authors."

Audio recordings of the books discussed are available exclusively to Talking Book Library patrons across the country. These library patrons request the books through their Reader Advisor or download them from NLS's BARD service.

Others can obtain these books through their local libraries.
